Compromise On European Army Plan Studied

BRUSSELS, Belgium, Saturday, Aug. 21 (AP) — A Midnight compromise designed to save the European army was reported in the works early today.

Officials of the six-nation conference here said Premier Pierre Mendes-France of France and the foreign ministers of the five other nations which would pool their armed forces under the projected European Defense Community were "working together" on a new plan that would combine the views of both sides.

The foreign ministers have been meeting here since Thursday to consider revisions proposed by Mendes-France. The foreign ministers of West Germany, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg all rejected his proposals and last night were reported completely deadlocked.

But early today, informants said, a new document being worked out would be taken back to Paris by Mendes-France, if it is agreed upon, as the best deal he could possibly get from France's EDC allies.

Few details of the new plan were disclosed.

The main feature, the sources said, was that it would not require new parliamentary action by the countries which already have ratified EDC. Only France and Italy have failed to ratify the pact.

Late yesterday dark pessimism dominated the conference.

The ministers were expected as a longshot measure to meet tomorrow possibly to set up a six-power experts' group to carry on the quest for a compromise. A new foreign ministers' conference then would have to be called.

♦ American and British officials observing the talks from the sidelines were openly downcast. It was their view France's demands for revising EDC not only were too stiff, but also posed the West with the most serious policy crisis in Europe since the war.

Pessimism mounted as these developments were reported during the day:

1. France rejected a compromise bid from Belgian Foreign Minister Paul-Henri Spaak to postpone action on her amendments until after EDC is ratified.

2. The six ministers started, but soon gave up, a point-by-point study of the French revision which,

Ike Ready For Long Vacation In Colorado

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20 —UP— President Eisenhower, like any American, impatiently cleaned up his last-minute chores Friday before setting out for an extended Colorado vacation.

Mrs. Eisenhower already had packed their bags and they planned to leave at 7:30 a.m., CST Saturday for Denver.

The President expects to spend about seven weeks on the golf courses and mountain streams near the mile-high city. But he also plans to make several trips and speeches to defend his legislative program — and Republican candidates who supported it.

The Eisenhowers had to postpone their vacation almost a week by the delay in congressional adjournment.

Awaiting him in Denver is "the Little White House" at Lowry Air Force Base where he will work almost every morning. For the first two weeks, he will be busy signing into law the bill approved by Congress.

Friday's White House chores included signing into law three bills on his "must" list for controlling Communist activities. There also was a heavy round of conferences and visitors. Among the latter was Rep. Thomas E. Martin (R-Ia.) who is campaigning for the Senate seat of Sen. Guy M. Gillette (D-Ia.) Martin asked the President to visit Iowa during the campaign.

Other GOP congressmen will flood the President with similar requests before the November election.

High on the presidential vacation list is plenty of golf, trout fishing, painting, outdoor cooking, bridge, and just plain loafing. But two major trips are already planned and at least five major speeches.

In his first speech, from Denver Monday night, the President will outline and defend the record of the Republican-controlled 83rd Congress. It will be carried nationwide by radio and television.

On Aug. 30, the President will fly back to Washington to address the American Legion national convention. Later that day, he will visit the Iowa State Fair and is expected to defend his administration's new flexible farm price support program.

Jes' Ramblin'

Mrs. Mae Modes is convinced the world isn't so big after all. She has just heard that her niece, Mrs. Margaret Smith's daughter, who is married and lives with her husband and three children in Washington, D. C., had a recent interesting experience. While taking a Skyline drive in a Virginia outing, a three-year-old daughter wandered a short way from her family and encountered a friendly stranger. The man, slightly past middle age, asked some questions and then, fearing the child was lost, took her to her parents. They in turn spoke of Monroe, La., as their former home.

"Monroe, why I lived there for some years," the stranger declared.

When asked further as to his occupation while there, he stated: "I was pastor of the First Methodist Church in Monroe some years ago."

It developed he was no other than Rev. W. C. Scott, who it will be recalled, was pastor here about 12 years ago.

Sportswriter Paul Martin poured forth advice for area farmers yesterday who are plagued with drouth. Being a sort of part time farmer himself, Martin averred, "Maybe we could plant a crop somewhat more suited to this climate - for instance cactus might thrive in this rainless region!"

"You're kidding me," the woman in charge replied. "I'd hate to have to kill you. Isn't this your

Formosa To Get New Jet Planes, President Says

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20 (AP) — President Eisenhower reported today the Chinese Nationalist air force is being equipped with swift American jet warplanes to build up Formosa's defenses against a Chinese Red invasion.

He told Congress in a foreign aid report, covering the first six months of the year, that some of these new jet wings would be ready for action some time this fall.

"Formosa stands as a symbol of hope for freedom loving Chinese and serves as a rallying point for their efforts to combat the forces of Communist imperialism," he said.

American military aid shipments, he said, also have helped improve antiaircraft defense installations on the island stronghold as well as modernize communications.

In his 68-page world survey, the President urgently appealed for quick action by France and Italy to approve the six-nation European army which would include German troops.

The President's new plea for the deadlocked European army project came as a six-nation conference in Brussels approached its wind-up in disagreement over proposals by French Premier Mendes-France for changes in the project.

Eisenhower bluntly labeled the absence of German troops to bolster West Europe as "the most serious single obstacle to an adequate European defense" against

Army Court Tries Lt. Col. Fleming As Collaborator

FORT SHERIDAN, Ill., Aug. 20 —UP—An emaciated lieutenant colonel, brought before a court martial on charges of collaborating with his Communist captors in Korea, said Friday his accusers lacked the "guts" to make the charges to his face.

Lt. Col. Harry Fleming, 46, Racine, Wis., went to trial on charges of leading Communist discussion sessions and making propaganda broadcasts for the enemy while a prisoner at Pyongyang.

Fleming was the first Army officer to face court martial on charges of misconduct in Communist POW camps. The charges against him were disclosed only Thursday night, when his arrest was announced.

The court martial began Friday but was adjourned until Monday at the prosecution's request because witnesses are scattered throughout the country.

At a news conference after the session, Fleming steadfastly maintained that he is innocent, and said bitterly that "none of my accusers had guts enough to accuse me to my face."

Fleming, who was decorated by the Korean government for meritorious service, said his conduct was for the best interest of the Americans in Prison Camp No. 12.

"Many came back alive," he said, "including some of my accusers who may well have been lying buried on a Korean hillside."

The principle charge against Fleming said he "participated in the preparation and making of Communist propaganda recordings designed to promote disloyalty and disaffection among U.S. troops." One of them was an appeal to former President Harry Truman and Gen. Douglas MacArthur to withdraw U.S. troops from Korea, the Army said.

John L. Adams' Naked, Beaten Body Is Found

Lies On Bloody Bed In His Own Apartment Here

The naked, battered body of 42-year-old John L. Adams, apparently dead for several days, was found sprawled and bloated on a blood-soaked bed in his own apartment at 900 North Third street late last night.

The tall, slightly built man was to begin his third year in Monroe as elementary school music supervisor for Ouachita parish schools.

Investigating officers said the preliminary evidence pointed to murder. Adams had been reported missing earlier Friday and a statewide alert had sent searchers throughout LaSalle and Ouachita parishes for the Monroe man.

Monroe City Detective Chief Hugh Tolbert said that during a routine check of the man's apartment at about 9 o'clock last night officers noted the door locked to his upstairs suite, but found a window fan in operation in the kitchen window.

Tolbert said he sought out the building's owner, Herman Masur, and Adams' cousin, Leo F. Terzia, Jr., and together they unlocked and entered the four-room Savoy apartment.

Adams had lived alone in the apartment. Officers believed the man had been dead "for at least two or three days," but Ouachita coroner Dr. J. T. French had not completed his exanmination at a late hour last night.

First notice of a possible tragedy came early Friday when state and parish police issued an alert for Adams. It was first believed he had become a victime of foul play near Tullos, La., where his personal papers

Youth Confesses Sex-Slaying Of School Girl, 17

TOLDO, Ohio, Aug. 20—UP—A 17-year-old high school junior Friday admitted stabbing Mary Jolene Friess, 17, in a dense woods near her home and raping her as she was dying.

But a 12-year-old boy he implicated denied any part in the sex-slaying.

Bernard Schreiber confessed to the murder of the shy high school sophomore a week ago, after he was trapped by a lie detector test. The pigeon-chested youth said his smaller companion clubbed the girl from the bicycle she was riding down to the mail box, but fled from the scene as Schreiber assaulted her.

Schrieber reenacted the crime Friday and gave Lucas County Prosecutor Harry Friberg a complete statement, which indicated the youth had propositioned the girl without success the day before the slaying. "She just looked good to me," Schreiber calmly told Capt. Alfred Bartkowiak. "I wanted just one thing and was going to get it."

The scared and crying little 12-year-old boy who was not identified denied having anything to do with the slaying when Schreiber confronted him.

Schreiber's mother, Louise, said her son, "a regular church-goer who hardly ever misses mass," returned home and asked for "two or three helpings of pancakes for lunch," after the crime.

FORGERY SUSPECTS JAILED AT BEAUMONT, TEX. —Raymond Ray Secrest, left, and Louise Beatrice Moore, alias Ryan, Breault, and Rita Shadoan, have been taken into custody by Beaumont authorities and charged with four counts of forgery. The Moore woman was arrested here March 9 for investigation of forgery, but on April 11 was released to Dallas authorities. On August 8, the couple cashed three checks here, and have been charged with three counts of forgery. They were written on the Monroe Roofing and Sheet Metal Works. Above is equipment in possession of the pair when arrested. It includes a typewriter, check protector, printing press, inks and a number of other items. Monroe holds the first detainer on the couple, also sought by New Orleans and Dallas authorities.

Vote Threatened

Congress Votes Pay Raises For Postal Workers

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20—UP—Congress overrode vigorous administration objections Friday and passed a five per cent pay raise for one and one-half million postal and other federal workers.

Republican leaders promptly predicted President Eisenhower would veto the measure, expected to cost the government about $336 million a year. The administration had wanted to increase postal rates to partially offset the cost.

House passage came by voice vote after the Senate had approved it 69-4. The Senate earlier had slapped down, 55-16, an amendment by Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland (Calif.) to hike first class and airmail rates one cent each.

Knowland's amendment, which had wholehearted presidential support, would have given the government additional revenue of $240 million to help offset the cost of the pay raise.

Knowland predicted during Senate debate that Mr. Eisenhower would veto any measure that did not include a postal rate increase.

House GOP Leader Charles A. Halleck (R-Ind.) said that so far as he knows the President "has not reversed his position" against any bill lacking a mail rate boost.

Voting for the Senate bill were 31 Republicans, 37 Democrats and Independent Sen. Wayne L. Morse (Ore.).

Only Knowland and three other Republicans, Sens. Francis Case (S.D.) Andrew F. Schoeppel (Kan.) and John J. Williams (Del.) voted against passage.

The measure calls for minimum raises of $200-a-year for 500,000 mailmen, and a $170-a-year minimum for about one million classified workers. The top raise would be $480 a year.

The legislation is regarded as a political hot potato. It could be an issue in the November Congressional elections.

Monroe Weather Remains In Rut

According to Webster, weather is the "state of the air or atmosphere with respect to heat or cold, wetness or dryness, calm or storm, etc." Judging by that, the weather has been moving in a narrow band around Monroe for some time—in the hot, clear section.

However, a sprinkling of rain fell on the downtown area for the second consecutive day. Hopes are high that it may really rain—if for nothing better than to break the monotony of the weather picture. The maximum yesterday was 99, the minimum 74, and partly cloudy in the forecast.

They will be vaccinated before Nov. 15, the date the disease usually starts appearing. The vaccine contains a "recently isolated virus strain," the department said.

Solons Hasten Home To Begin Fall Campaigns

Rival Claims On Accomplishments Of GOP Heard

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20 —UP— The Republican-controlled 83rd Congress adjourned Friday night, winding up a tumultuous session which gave President Eisenhower a high batting average on both his legislative slate and his economy drive.

The House and Senate, their members fighting to get home for election campaigning, capped an eight-month session by passing in the closing hours the administration-backed social security bill and a government workers pay raise.

With that, senators and congressmen wound up their activities with a round of speech-making and hand-shaking, then darted for homeward-bound planes and trains. Those that survive the fall elections, or are not up for re-election, will return next Jan. 5.

The social security bill, last important item before Congress, increases both benefits and taxes and brings 10 million more persons, including farmers, under the old age program. It contained most of the changes sought by the President.

However, the $336 million pay raise bill for 1.5 million postal and

Bill Extending Social Security System Enacted

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20—UP—Congress Friday passed a compromise bill increasing social security benefits and taxes and bringing 10 million more persons, including farmers, into the old age program.

The measure, last on President Eisenhower's list of "must" legislation, went to the White House for signature after the Senate approved it by voice vote late Friday. Earlier the House had passed it by a voice vote.

The bill was a major legislative victory for Mr. Eisenhower. It contains most of the extensions and increased benefits he had requested.

It brings to 58 million the number of Americans covered by social security. Chairman Daniel A. Reed (R-N. Y.) of the House Ways & Means committee, said "in practical effect, we have finally achieved the goal of universal coverage."

The compromise was hammered out by a House-Senate conference committee after several days of deadlock. It extends social security coverage to some 3.6 million farmers, including two million farm laborers.

Also newly covered are such self-employed professional workers as accountants, architects and engineers, but it excludes doctors, dentists and lawyers.

Rep. Reed said farmers even-

Sky Troopers Nab Many Speeders

2 New Planes Added To State's Traffic Control

BATON ROUGE, Aug. 20 (AP) — State troopers today expanded their traffic air force to three planes and Supt. Francis Grevemberg warned they will hunt down highway speeders.

The new radio-equipped craft are in constant touch with patrol cars and the system has caused the arrest of many a surprised motorist violating the law.

The two extra Sessna 180's were authorized by the 1954 Legislature. Planes are based in Baton Rouge, Shreveport and Lafayette.

Grevemberg said at one time he had considered adding helicopters to his sky patrol. But the helicopters require five hours of ground maintenance for every hour in the air "and that would have meant adding a ground crew," he said.

Grevemberg told a meeting of troop commanders the campaign for highway safety will be increased.

"Our program does not include any favorites," he said. "Big shots will get the same treatment as

'Properdin' Hopeful New Weapon In Medical Arsenal

Primeval Blood Ingredient Shielding Man From Disease Is Discovered By Cleveland Physician

NEW YORK, Aug. 20 (AP)—A group of Ohio scientists today announced discovery of a primeval, built-in shield from disease in man and animal.

They raised the hope that their discovery may yet rival the antitoxins and antibodies in the struggle for immunity from disease — and that this ancient nature's remedy offers protection from a strictly modern scourge, radiation sickness.

The substance is a protein in the blood stream now labelled "properdin." Its discoverers think it was perhaps the very first protective substance in the blood of warm-blooded animals.

Briefly, properdin fights infection. But unlike the antitoxins and antibodies, which give immunity from such specific attacks as whooping cough or diphtheria, properdin is "non-specific." That is to say it takes on all comers.

Announced today in "Science," the journal of the American Assn. for the Advancement of Science, properdin was discovered and purified by Dr. Louis Pillemer and a staff of 12 assistants.

Pillemer is 46, a professor of biochemistry in Western Reserve University's Department of Pathology.

The discovery, he said today, was five years in the making—and accidental. He and his staff were working on a mysterious substance called "complement," used mainly in a blood test. They found that certain serums didn't behave as they should, and in trying to track down what was wrong they stumbled on properdin.

Properdin, by the way, is a tentative name. It comes from the Latin word meaning to destroy, because it promptly joins battle with enemy organisms—even those that enter the blood from a scratch.

In the "Science" article, Pillemer likens properdin to "the boys at the outpost," attacking the enemy and holding it off until the body can bring up its heavy artillery. In other words, properdin's advance action gives the blood time to manufacture antitoxins and antibodies.

Pillemer, on vacation near Point Pleasant, N.J., while an Eastern drug house prepares properdin for him in quantity, said today it would take another year before properdin's effect on human beings is known.

But the scientist made no effort to hide his excitement.

"On the whole," he said, "It does look promising."

Already tests on rats, properdin has been able to protect quite a few rodents exposed to radiation.

Following an atomic blast or any type of radiation, 50 per cent or more of the exposed people die of infection in the first week or two, he said.

Apparently the rays destroy the properdin in the blood, the very

Three Anti-Red Measures Given Ike's Approval

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20 —UP—President Eisenhower threw his newly-enacted anti-Communist program into high gear Friday by signing into law three subversive-control bills, including one to force testimony before congressional committees.

The measures were key parts of the program successfully sought from Congress by Mr. Eisenhower to strike at communism at home and protect the nation from spies and saboteurs. Other bills in the omnibus program will be signed into law later.

One of the measures signed Friday is intended to force witnesses before congressional committees to testify against suspected spies and traitors. It avoids the Fifth Amendment refuge roadblock by permitting federal courts to grant the witnesses immunity from prosecution.

Any witness receiving immunity would be subject to prosecution if he refused to talk. In the past, many witnesses before Communist - hunting congressional committees have refused to testify on grounds they might incriminate themselves.

The second bill signed increases the penalty for harboring or concealing persons from arrest. The Justice Department said the old penalties, a $1,000 find and six months imprisonment were inadequate to prevent Reds from going underground. Congress raised the penalty to $5,000 and five years.

Primeval Blood

stuff needed to fight the infection.

His substance's "biggest role," Pillemer said, may be in protecting against radiation.

Pillemer's team found properdin in all warm-blooded animals they have examined, as well as in man.

This suggested to them that it had a very early origin—and this basic connection with early life raised the possibility that properdin's benefits could be transferred from one species to another, even from animals to man.

The protective effects already have been transferred from the cow to the rat in experiments.

Pillemer, a native of South Africa, was brought to the United States when he was a year old. He is a graduate of Western Reserve and got his Ph.D. there. With his wife and three children he lives in Cleveland.

civil service workers faces a presidential veto because Congress refused to approve a compensating postal rate increase — a touchy issue in an election year.

As Congress wound up its business, the White House made clear that it was pretty well satisfied with congressional action on the President's legislative program. It claimed a .830 batting average for Mr. Eisenhower. In baseball, 1.000 is tops.

Mr. Eisenhower himself will elaborate on this theme when he delivers a nationwide radio and TV address Monday night from his Denver vacation retreat. The President, who leaves Saturday for Denver, has tentatively set 7 p.m. CST as the time for his congressional report.

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson discounted the White House "box score." He said the real test is whether the laws passed by Congress promoted "security" and "prosperity." Johnson said history will determine whether the President's program was "bold, dynamic and progressive."

Mr. Eisenhower probably will call attention to the fact that the Republican-steered Congress voted only $53,909,000,000 to run the federal government in the current fiscal year. This is less than any year since before the Korean war.

This year's appropriations were some $5.5 billion less than the $59,498,000,000 voted by the same Congress last year. It compares with $101 billion approved in 1951 when the nation started to rearm in the wake of the Korean war.

The House adjourned at 5:39 p.m., CST, after unanimously adopting a resolution expressing its thanks to Speaker Joseph W. Martin Jr., for his impartiality in presiding over the chamber.

The resolution was offered by Democratic Leader Sam Rayburn of Texas, a former speaker. He said Martin's "word is his bond" and he is "one of the finest men ever to serve as speaker."

Martin wished his colleagues well as they go back to the political wars." He said Rayburn was a "great speaker — and may be again," a reference to a possible Democratic victory in the fall. Rayburn grinned.

Before adjourning at 10:50 p.m. EDT the Senate adopted a resolution stating that its members are subject to recall on five days notice by the Republican and Democratic leaders to hear the report of a committee studying censure charges against Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.). The senators will be called back some time this fall.

The last official act of the Senate before quitting was to pass a House-approved resolution opposing use of U.S. funds to pay damages to 11 American employes of the United Nations who refused to answer questions before the Senate Internal Security subcommittee.

The employes were dismissed from the UN but upon appeal the UN administrative tribunal awarded them $179,420 in damages. The award was sustained by the International Court of Justice and is now before the UN Assembly for action.

The resolution does not have the force of law, but asks the U.S. delegation at the UN to take "all possible steps" to prevent the payments.

Lost in the last minute rush was the administrations' bill for construction of a $1.5 billion Upper Colorado River reclamation project.

Large City Tract Will Be Divided For Residences

A $40,000 tract of bayou-fronting acreage in Monroe is slated to be sold as individual building lots sometime late in 1955.

State Senator James D. Sparks, Monroe, said Friday that he had purchased the 154 acres from Mrs. Sarah Fennel Jones for $40,000 and plans to open the section as a residential subdivision next year.

The property faces Bayou DeSiard along 2000 feet on the east bank.

Sparks said he plans to subdivide the property into about 18 large lots.

The parish police jury has adopted a resolution permitting the solon to move the present road back from the bayou at his own expense.

The Americans, however, may have been given a clear warning by Mendes-France he does not intend to budge.

The bald issue facing the ministers involve deep issues of German pride and French prejudice.

The Germans are ready to join EDC, yield some of their sovereignty to it, and rearm within it provided they get back complete equality with their partners.

The long - memoried French, thrice invaded, seek political, military and diplomatic devices to hold up German rearmament until they feel quite sure the Germans never will attack anyone again.

Truck drivers received this advice from the state superintendent: "We have portable weighing scales on alternate routes, so don't attempt to dodge the regular stations on major highways."

The truck load ceiling remains unchanged at 18,000 pounds per axle, but the recent legislature changed the penalty to $5 per 100 pounds of overweight.

Because of this, Grevemberg explained, he was getting a growing number of complaints, "the fines must be paid to troopers, who require payment of penalties before the truck can be released."

State Rep. Nick Cefalu of Tangipahoa Parish recently grumbled to the State Highway Board that Grevemberg's troopers were "too strict" in carrying out the law and causing hardship in many cases.

The police superintendent said he was issuing orders telling troopers exactly what to do in such cases.

He reminded that truck drivers with certain types of loads difficult to estimate — such as stumps, forest products, lumber, gravel, sand and farm products — are allowed a 10 per cent load tolerance.

Other vehicles are given a five per cent tolerance — to allow "for honest mistakes," Grevemberg said. "We don't want to give any more tickets than necessary."

any surprise Russian attack.

"No measures to defend free Europe from Soviet aggression," he said, "can be fully effective without participation by West Germany."

The President reported that $1,700,000,000 in American guns, tanks, planes and military equipment were shipped to more than a score of friendly nations in the six months covered by his survey. This boosted to $9,400,000,000 the total amount of American military aid to all nations in the past four years.

In reviewing Far East developments, the President said about 700 million dollars of the foreign aid supplies were shipped to this region to guard against any new Communist gains. Shipments to the Far East and Asia, he said, now are at an all time high with another billion dollars of military supplies programmed for delivery soon.

He gave an optimistic appraisal of the ability of Thailand's armed forces to beat off any "military incursions" which might be launched from neighboring Indochina.

United States aid to Thailand's army, navy and air force, he said, has built up defenses to the point where only "direct participation by Communist China" would threaten the improved defenses there.

However, he said that in order to build up more defense power in the Far East, it would be necessary to shore up the economic bases of friendly nations, to enable them to expand their armed forces without dangerous strain.

To help pay for social security benefit increases ranging from $5 to $23.50 a month, the bill calls for a payroll tax increase beginning next Jan. 1 on persons earning more than $3,600 a year. It increases the tax base from $3,600 to $4,200 a year.

Under present law, the maximum monthly benefit for a single person is $85 and for a married couple, both over 65, $127.50.

and articles of clothing were found in a wooded area by playing children.

No weapon was definitely identified as the lethal instrument, but a strong possibility loomed that Adams may have been battered with a cast iron skillet. Such a skillet, broken in half, lay on the floor beside Adams' bed.

Police and members of the sheriff's department were scouring the apartment for fingerprints and other clues late last night.

Adams left Monroe ten days ago to visit relatives in Mobile, Ala., but was presumed to be en route home when the articles were found near Tullos Thursday. He had mailed a card from the Alabama city Monday informing relatives here that he was "on the way home."

Adams' brother, with whom the dead man had visited in Mobile, said the Monroe man had started home Tuesday in his 1954 Plymouth automobile. The automobile had not been found last night.

The articles found at Tullos included two pairs of trousers and a pair of shoes, none of which showed signs of long wear. With the assortment were ownership papers for the new automobile Adams purchased in Monroe last month.

Masur said another tenant told him Adams' car was seen parked on the street near the apartment Wednesday.

Tenants noticed lights burning during the week, Masur said, and notified police Friday night.

Adams was reported to be a native of Portland, Ark. Prior to taking the job in Monroe, Adams taught music in the LaSalle parish school system.

The body was picked up by Mulhearn Funeral Home shortly after it was found. Funeral arrangements had not been set late last night.

The apartment occupied by Adams was in one of Monroe's best residential sections. He occupied an upstairs apartment in the rear of the building.

Shortly after the discovery of the body, authorities from all local law enforcement agencies converged on the scene and began one of the most extensive investigations in Monroe in many years.

Adams' death apparently launched one of the city's most baffling cases.

Irish Nationalist Hero Comes Home From Jail; Fighting Fills Hospital

POMEROY, Northern Ireland (AP) — Sure, it was a glorious fight — but the Union Jack still fluttered today over Pomeroy.

But you should have seen the place last night about the time Liam Kelly was being welcomed home from jail. He's the local hero of the nationalists, who want to wrest Northern Ireland from the British crown and join it up with the Irish Republic. He had been spending a year in the Belfast gaol for making seditious remarks last year about Queen Elizabeth II. This was when he was campaigning for a seat in the Northern Ireland Parliament.

But yesterday Kelly's term was up and he headed for home. His nationalist friends camped on the edge of Pomeroy to give him a big welcome and escort him into town. Three hundred North Irish cops with guns stood by just in case of trouble.

As the word was passed along that Kelly was coming, bonfires were touched off on the hill. The nationalists formed a parade to march him to his home and hoisted the green, white and gold flag of the Irish Republic.

The police ordered them to strike the flag when they started down Pomeroy's main street. The nationalists paid nary a heed and marched into the cordon of 80 police strung across the road.

The police charged with their shillelaghs and broke up the parade. The nationalists retreated to the churchyard with 30 wounded, then armed themselves with stones and bottles.

"Stand firm, boys," a leader shouted, "now let 'em have it." The nationalists charged back into the fray. They beat off police trying to grab the flag, but another attack by the police clubs finally sent them reeling.

The fighting petered out then, and the village hotel was turned into a casualty station for the night. The able-bodied, including Kelly, went home to bed.

He's quite a fellow, actually. He won the seat he was campaigning for last year in Northern Ireland's Parliament. While in jail, he also was elected to the Irish Republic's Senate. He was sworn into office in his jail cell last week, by special permission of the British.

Princess Margaret May Announce Engagement, London Paper Declares

LONDON, Aug. 20—UP—A London newspaper Friday headlined "rumors" that Princess Margaret may announce her engagement on her 24th birthday Saturday to Colin Tennant, 27-year-old heir to a Scottish barony and chemical fortune.

Court circles, however, called such an announcement "unlikely." They said they would be "surprised" if it materialized. Buckingham Palace, as usual, refused to comment on the private life of a member of the royal family.

The Laborite Daily Herald printed the rumors in a front-page story at a time when Tennant, a frequent companion of the princess, was a house guest of Queen Elizabeth and Margaret at Balmoral Castle in Scotland.

Other London newspapers threw cold water on the Herald's report. But they kept a closer watch on the doings of the princess than at any time since reports of a hopeless love affair with divorced group Capt. Peter Townsend swept her into the headlines a year ago.

Tennant, the son of Lord Glenconner, is spending six days at Balmoral and will take part in birthday festivities for Margaret. Only two weeks ago, Margaret was a house guest of Tennants parents in their Peebleshire home.

The Herald said Margaret and Tennant have been friends for some years and recently have been "constant companions." It reported the princess has been a regular guest at the quiet informal dinners he gives for friends in his London flat.

Thorne's Mother Sues In Effort To Break Will

CHICAGO, Aug. 20—UP— The last will of Montgomery Ward Thorne, which left half the mail order heir's $1.3 million fortune to his pretty fiancee, was admitted to probate Friday and was immediately challenged in a suit filed by Thorne's mother.

Probate Judge Charles Seidel accepted the will, made nine days before Thorne died, and named the young heir's fiancee, Maureen Ragen, 18, as executrix.

Under the will Miss Ragen receives half the estate and her mother, Aleen Ragen, a fourth share.

A few minutes later a suit filed in circuit court for Mrs. Marion Thorne, the youth's wealthy, socialite mother, contested the will, charging that the Ragens used "undue influence" on him.

Mrs. Thorne had been sole heir under a previous will of Thorne's, but was reduded to a one-eighth share in the new will. An aunt received the other eighth.

Her suit alleged that Mrs. Ragen supplied money to Thorne to buy barbiturates, liquor and narcotics and exercised her "dominant personality" to further the romance between Thorne and her daughter.

The 20-year-old Thorne was found dead in his tiny apartment June 19 in one of the city's most bizarre death cases. The coroner's office, believing the death was "mysterious" and perhaps a result of foul play, carried out a lengthy investigation.

But a coroner's jury, relying mostly on the testimony of medical experts who studied Thorne's exhumed body, ruled the youth died naturally from pneumonia.

Laborite Group Visits Mukden

LONDON, Aug. 20 (AP)—The British Labor party delegation headed by Clement Attlee arrived today in Mukden, Manchurian industrial center, the Peiping radio announced.

The eight-member group flew by special plane from Peiping and was met at the Mukden airport by Chang Hsueh-hsuan, vice chairman of the provincial People's government, according to a broadcast dispatch from the New China News Agency. It went on:

Members of Mukden's Young Pioneers, a Communist youth organization, presented bouquets to the delegates.

Mayor Chiao Jo-yu of Mukden gave a dinner for the delegation after it had visited newly built workers' living quarters and an agricultural producers' cooperative.

M. K. M'Connell With Solvents In Agriculture

M. K. McConnell has joined the agricultural chemicals sales department of Commercial Solvents, it was announced Friday by Clyde Marshall, general manager of the department.

From C. S. C.'s offices at Sterlington, Mr. McConnell will handle the sale and distribution of CSC ammonium nitrate to the fertilizer trade in Louisiana, Mississippi, Arkansas and Texas.

A chemistry graduate of Louisiana State University, Mr. McConnell served for five years with the Tennessee Valley Authority. He later owned and operated a cotton and cattle farm at Rayville. More recently, he served as manager of the department of agriculture's soil conservation office in Richland parish.

During World War II, Mr. McConnell saw duty in the Pacific Theater as a lieutenant in a U. S. Navy submarine group. He is a member of the Louisiana Cattlemen's Association and the Kiwanis.

Editorials

Thanks, Messrs. Roosevelt And Truman

The Congressional elections are rapidly approaching. In fact, they are but a bare 11 weeks away. The National Democrat party is urging voters to vote for its candidates no matter who they may be.

Were many Democrats of the caliber represented by Congressman Martin Dies, or Senator Pat McCarran, or George Smathers, this newspaper would heartily concur. Alas, such is not the case. The national party is attempting to lay the groundwork for the future of either Adlai Stevenson or Franklin Roosevelt, Jr. The National Democrat party asks you to disbelieve the Republican cry of "20 years of treason."

In order to refresh your minds in as short a space as possible, The Morning World will present some reasons which will demonstrate that the past administrations of Messrs. Roosevelt and Truman should never be forgotten.

Consider, fellow Louisianians, if you will, the New Deal policy towards the State's sugar industry. Ask nearly any sugar planter about "benevolent Roosevelt's policies." They'll tell you that members of the Roosevelt family (Adams) had extensive sugar holdings in Latin America and in the West Indies. These people wanted complete control of the world's sugar market and sought to wipe out the Louisiana sugar industry as a means of this domination.

Check, you cotton farmers, the Roosevelt policies towards cotton, policies which were responsible for starting markets elsewhere in the world. Far from attempting to halt the depression which even "liberal" economists have agreed would have eliminated itself, Mr. Roosevelt saw that controls would enable him to grasp more power over the government. Although many have blamed President Hoover for the depression, do you remember 1937? There is not one economist in ten who will state that Roosevelt could have saved the situation had the war not come along.

Aside from these facts, what about the wholesale treachery committed against the American people during these two administrations? Congressman Martin Dies in this week's U. S. News and World Report gives a graphic description of subversion in those days. He tells how very difficult it was to fight subversion during the Roosevelt days. More significant however, is his testimony of Roosevelt's feeling toward the Communists:

"'Well,' the President said, 'you know all this business about investigating Communists is a serious mistake. Mr. Lewis is very much disturbed. I just got a telephone call from Mr. Lewis and he is very, very much disturbed. If Martin (Congressman Dies) insists on investigating the Communists in the CIO, it will antagonize the CIO which will in turn, hurt the Democratic party because we must rely on the CIO in some doubtful areas.'" Mr. Roosevelt later continued, "Several of the best friends I've got are Communists. You're all wrong about this thing, I'm not defending Communists as such, but I'm telling you it represents a tremendous advance over what existed in Russia."

These last words were spoken to Congressman Dies.

Consider some of the things which were brought out about deals made by the Roosevelt administration. When these facts were brought out, the partisan colleagues in the Democrat party, instead of accepting the terrible truth of the situation, merely started smearing those who were and still are bringing out these facts.

Consider the atom deals made with the Soviets by Roosevelt and Truman. Major George R. Jordan has testified seven times under oath that following instructions from Harry Hopkins, he shipped the Russians 500 pounds of black uranium oxide and 500 pounds of uranium nitrate. This was denied by Dean Acheson or "better," he issued a statement to the effect that no materials had been sent. Instead of thanking Major Jordan for his information, he was denounced severely.

Major Jordan stated that in order to insure Russian success in the atomic program, the United States shipped to the Soviets some twenty-five million dollars in ore dredging, screening and pulverizing machinery, heavy rock crushers, earth boring and quarrying equipment. This was intended to assist the Russians in excavating and putting to use, the captured Czech mines. The readers will be reminded that General Patch had reached these mines but was mysteriously ordered to hold up until the Soviet troops came panting up the trail to take possession.

The United States, apparently still worried that the Russians would be unable to locate the uranium sent four hundred Geiger counters to assist in the project.

To make certain that the Russians would learn how to correctly drop the atom weapon once it was made, the United States then sent the famous, but precious Norden bombsight along with four Norden experts who arrived in Moscow on October 15th, 1944. They gave practical courses to the Soviets in simulated "drops" over Moscow.

At this time, the U. S. sent 25,000,000 dollars in pipe to the Russians even though General Groves was facing a critical pipe shortage. The United States then sent 17 stationary and three hydro-electric plants costing $263,-289,000.

Then, the administration wanted to send copper to the Soviets. Copper was so scarce that the government was substituting silver from the Treasury vaults. General Groves refused to release the copper. However, Harry Hopkins overruled him and sent them 254,923 tons costing well over 90,000,000 dollars.

To make absolutely certain that all went well, an additional 65,000,000 dollars in short supply, vital electrical equipment was shipped so that the Soviet reactor plants could be built. The President then issued a statement which read as follows:

"The Government of the United States of America will continue to supply the U. S. S. R. with such defense articles, defense information and defense services as the President of the United States of America shall authorize to be transferred or provided." The authority was then vested in Harry Hopkins.

This is only a tiny fraction of what went on. From time to time, quite often in fact, this newspaper will publish more of these "reminders" so that the people can see for themselves whether "patriots" controlled the United States during the past five Democrat administrations.

George Sokolsky

THESE DAYS

God Save The Queen!

The British open every public assembly, meeting, theatrical performance, concert, or any other gathering with "God Save the Queen!" and it is considered proper and fitting. So this summer, I thought I would do a bit of agitating among the concert-goers at Tanglewood to make it customary to start all concerts with "The Star Spangled Banner." I once heard Sir Thomas Beecham conduct "The Star Spangled Banner" in Carnegie Hall with a verve and fervor to which Americans are hardly accustomed. It almost sounded that he meant:

"Oh, thus be it ever, when freemen shall stand Between their loved homes and the war's desolation!"

At any rate, there were some like-minded ladies who agreed and we talked the thing up. They liked the idea of an agitation over "The Star Spangled Banner." My first experience was a blank stare. Perhaps the person thought that I had said the "Internationale" instead of America's national anthem. We listen to Prokofiev and Khatchaturian but "The Star Spangled Banner"—"Well, I don't know," he said, "it raises an issue." What issue was not explained, but it was something controversial.

Then one of my lady friends came back with the report that she had encountered direct opposition. She had been told that it could not be done because it is so dull. I could not make out whether what was meant was that the tune is dull or that having a national anthem is dull. Of course, some of our friends are becoming so sophisticated that anything less than the universe is too small and dull for them.

Well, on "Tanglewood on Parade," which is a gala fiesta in the Berkshires, where anything musical can happen, Arthur Fiedler appeared with the "Boston Pops Orchestra" which plays whatever comes to hand, and Fiedler opened his program with Sousa's "The Stars and Stripes Forever," and the enormous audience let out a thunder of applause with cheers and bravos and it did their hearts good. Maybe nobody will ask Fiedler to come again because he introduced a patriotic note, but the audience loved it.

True, we had gone in plentifully for Berlioz and we always have Mozart, Haydn, Beethoven and Brahms, but a little baked beans and apple pie go far in New England and the New Yorkers who fill the seats and throw their blankets on the lawn are of a generation that can listen to Berlioz's "Requiem" and enjoy good jazz in their young lives without too much shock. It is like being right wing or left wing in politics, but in the middle, it is like something by Hindemith, which, if you like it, you can have it. And I fear that the young prefer the romanticists and the jazz-writers but not the discordant moderns who drown them in orchestration without joy or sorrow.

I recently recounted the wonders of this year's concerts at Tanglewood, the best in many years, and the most favorable response to the revival of Berlioz, who will undoubtedly become fashionable again, to Alexis Lichine, the French wine merchant who remarked that perhaps this improving taste in music will be reflected in an improving taste in food and liquor. It is a bit astonishing that young people can steep themselves deeply in good music on a fare of bland frankfurters and greasy hamburgers downed with a cola drink. Perhaps to them it will be neither dull nor incongruous to start a concert with a reminder that the United States is a nation.

So now that we have had the invasion of the sacred precincts of Tanglewood by "The Stars and Stripes Forever," perhaps it will not be amiss to begin the concerts or even the first concert with "The Star Spangled Banner," and it might even be possible to have some outstanding soprano sing it. And this rule could be made to apply to all concerts, baseball games, football games, etc.

Occasionally one hears a compromise, "America the Beautiful," or "God Bless America" is played to permit a patriotic note, yet avoiding the national anthem. Perhaps "The Star Spangled Banner" is feared lest it stimulate nationalism, thus giving offense to the Indians or the Arab bloc or even, God save the mark, the Soviet Universal State. We must be so careful, you know, lest we offend the foreigners or they will refuse to take our tainted money.

The Cadet Mess Detail at West Point (they serve the future officers) is seething under the surface. I am told that members resent the fact that though they are men of many skills in civilian life (including several with college degrees) they ended up after being drafted as waiters for the Military Academy's elite corps of undergrads. Some of the waiters are expert riflemen, medics, engineers, essential to the national defense. They say they've been forced into this special regiment and they consider it degrading.

Attention Pandit Nehru: The Maharajah of Baroda is dividing his time (today that is) between Ruth Gillis and Pat Dane, the Coast cuties.

No, Not That: Marilyn Monroe makes her first public appearance in months on Aug. 28 at a Westport, Conn. Democratic jamboree and I wonder how come she let herself get sucked into politics. What she's got should be strictly non-partisan.

Gag: Nick Manero hears that Betsy Von Whatshername is going to change her name to Gloria Von Whatshername. (Okay, go back where you came from!)

Opportunity for Dames Only: Wanna sleep in Errol Flynn's bedroom? Here's your chance. An ad reads: "Errol Flynn offers his famous Mullholland Farms for rent or lease, completely furnished. Projection and theatre room. Caretaker. Pool. Tennis court. Pony ring with pony. $950 a month." (Why the pony, Errol?)

It's Just a Little Club: Cafeman Billy Reed is going to start a "Dinner of the Month Club" but how do you eat between time? . . . Meanwhile, he's acting as the local escort service. It was Mira Slava, the Mex movie star, the day before she left for the Venice Film Festival. Next week he's got to play host to Dan Dailey, in for a quick look - see, and I wonder what he expects to see? (Maybe Chrysler's 25G offer to TV in "Burlesque.")

Land of the Not So Golden West: When the California Attorney General raided Pismo Beach recently he found a colony of call girls and their "agents" who had moved on from Los Angeles and San Francisco during local "heat" waves. Their ledgers (sure they keep them) showed monthly earnings of $400 to $500 each, whereas they made from $900 to $1,500 in the larger towns . . . Battle royal for control of California between Nixon, Knowland and Warren further complicated by the fact that Gov. Goodie Knight (the bridegroom) has ambitions too. He is said to be friendly with a group that wants to open the state for Nevada-type gambling and you know who they are.

The East River Boondoggle: A patriotic reader named Robert Wasmuth sent my piece about the UN's secret police "spying on American anti - Communists" to Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., who replied: "No secret police could operate within the UN without its being known to United States security authorities. If our security authorities knew of such a thing I'm sure they would tell me about it." Mr. Wasmuth comments: "I guess Mr. Lodge doesn't read the papers much or he would know that J. Edgar Hoover has given testimony to the fact that a Soviet spy ring is operating out of the UN and we are helpless to do anything about it because of diplomatic immunity."

The Second Oldest Profession: Two bookmakers are (and have been for years) working the main lobby of the Alfred E. Smith State Office Building in Albany, calling in bets from their phone booth offices. What's good in the third?

Our Children

By Angelo Patri

Parents

There are, in my experience, three sorts of parents. There are those who won't let the children think and act on their own power under any circumstances. They are conscientious fathers and mothers who are so eager to rear their children to perfection in every field that they hover over them, bind them with chains of steel to their will so that the children either rebel or surrender all initative.

There are parents, who wanting their children to grow into courageous self-sustaining people, give them full freedom in everything, in every way. This results in bad manners, poor behavior, and friendlessness. These children blunder into situations that can be embarrassing to them and to others, into mistakes that will prove costly to all concerned. It takes years of trial to free these children from the bonds resulting from their freedom.

Then we have the old-fashioned parent who believes that children are in need of restraint, of discipline, of instruction in the ways of right living. He is old-fashioned in the sense that he has fixed his standards on the truths proven by ages of living to be truths. To him the Ten Commandments are about the best code of manners and morals yet discovered. His children grow up to wholesome useful maturity. They are happy to live within the law.

During my years of service to children I have met many parents. I have yet to meet one who was not trying to do his best for his children in accordance with his ability. At times his lack of knowledge, experience and training that might have given him the ability, were lacking so he made grievous mistakes. In the main parents are idealists where their children are concerned. The world their children live in is their hearts, and these they offer up in their service daily. They do what they can. When they fail it is because they could do no better.

Even the best of parents, those experienced, trained and devoted, fail to realize their ideals. Remember Adam had his Cain, David his Amnon. You need not go far to name someone who has his failure. The outcome is not always in the parents' hands.

To those who know, who try, who sacrifice and pray, and still fail, must go the understanding and sympathy of all who watch apart. To those who do not know, who do not have the understanding and knowledge that might enable them to help their children do well, must go the helpful advice and friendly consideration that may enable them to see the better way.

To all fathers and mothers of this nation's children should go the thanks and prayers of all hopeful helpful, understanding people.

Dr. Patri tells parents that it is their duty to teach their children the facts about sex. How to start this training is included in Dr. Patri's leaflet P-3, "Sex Education." To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to him, care Morning World, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York (Released by The Bell Syndicate Inc.)

IN WASHINGTON

Red Propaganda

The U. S. reads considerable about our propaganda broadcasts to Communist Russia, but doesn't hear much about what we receive in return.

The Reds can scarcely claim a mass radio audience over here, though nobody seems to have taken a poll, and any listener who wants to tune in on short wave from Moscow can do so. There are no spies lurking to report the listener to secret police.

Not long ago the State Department monitored a Moscow broadcast evidently prepared or the American farmer, who has never been susceptible to Communist propaganda and could not have heard much to change his opinion on this Kremlin version of the American farm situation.

Undoubtedly intended to influence American farmers that they are faring poorly under the price support program, the program was an interview on farm affairs in the United States with a Moscow reporter asking questions of a Soviet farm specialit. To those who had a chance to read the monitored report, one thing was strikingly apparent — that the Russian mind cannot comprehend the independence of the U. S. farmer, still thinks of him as a peasant, and of the prosperous farmer as a kulak (rich peasant), of the type which the Soviet government has liquidated.

The Communist propaganda line can be summed up as follows:

"Millions of U. S. farmers have incomes lower than subsistence levels. More than 3 million "farmsteads" in the U. S. have an average annual income from farm produce sold during recent years not over $2500. Rank and file American farmers are having a harder time with every passing year to make ends meet."

"When reserves in basic farm products are equal to the country's requirements for a year, prices are forced down. (This is the Russian interpretation of a decrease in price supports to hold surpluses in check."

"Under the flexible support plan, the average farmer will be more than ever at the mercy of the big monopolist. The result is that the latter, because of the new farm policy, is getting even richer."

The Communist propaganda broadcast goes on to say that a number of American economists (names not given) have estimated that the reduction of parity prices and increased production control will mean a drop of nearly 17 per cent in gross income and over 66 per cent in net profit. (Those are figures out of a crystal ball. They are not from any recognized U. S. source.)

The men who run the big farms, says the propaganda broadcast will have greater opportunities for increasing yields on the land under production control and also for planting other crops on the land that has supposedly been ruled out of production. (Those statements are false, according to U. S. farm authorities, because production will be controlled proportionately and the restrictions against planting other controlled crops are rigid.)

The broadcast quoted some farm leaders, some senators, using their statements out of context in such a way as to distort their meaning. It would scarcely confuse American farmers, the majority of whom are supporting the revised farm bill, and the Communist propagandists do not expect that it will. They are aiming at the listeners in large cities.

The complete Communist state control of collective farms and the Soviet government "requisition" of a substantial part of agricultural production, is well known to the American farmer. It's the city dweller whom the Reds want to soften.

They don't tell about the cost of living under the hammer and sickle — how the Russian consumer works 37.7 hours for enough food to feed a family of four, averaging two pounds of beef a week and one quart of milk, or 12.3 days to buy a pair of men's shoes and 4.4 weeks to buy a wool suit.

But their propaganda is smooth. To the gullible it sounds sad for the U. S.

Lobbies See Key Wins

WASHINGTON — The current session of Congress has been one of important victories and defeats for the nation's lobbies.

But win or lose, these pressure groups—sometimes called America's "Third House of Congress"—have played an influential part in helping shape legislation.

For example, a Congressional Quarterly survey shows that the programs advocated by business, farm, medical and housing lobbies often are more or less paralleled in laws passed by the 83rd Congress.

On the other hand, spokesmen for labor, foreign policy, and other lobbies say their organizations lost some battles. In general, these groups wanted continued or expanded federal aid programs in their fields, maximum aid to consumers rather than to business, and an expanded world trade program.

CQ's comparison of lobby claims and legislation produced this roundup of organization gains and losses:

In easing taxation of dividends and in permitting businesses to deduct a greater portion of plant and equipment costs, Congress incorporated the proposals of the Chamber of Commerce of the U. S. and the National Association of Manufacturers. Its turn-down of higher personal income tax exemptions was termed a defeat by spokesmen for the Congress of Industrial Organizations, American Federation of Labor and the bloc led by these two groups.

Public Housing leaders said they suffered their "worst defeat in years." Congress authorized a "token" program of 35,000 additional units in fiscal 1955 but only where slum clearance or urban modernization is under way. Lobbyists say other sections of the new housing law in general follow proposals of the National Association of Home Builders and the National Association of Real Estate Boards.

The flexible farm price supports program approved by both houses was advocated by the American Farm Bureau Federation and some other farm groups. But the National Grange, which suported flexible supports, said that "we lost our major objective—the two price system" when Congress did not establish dual supports for wheat. National Farmers Union, which fought for supports at as much as 100 per cent of parity, said that "we won a little and lost a little."

The battle between public power groups and private utility interests produced an historic filibuster. Utilities pressed for private ownership of fissionable material and development on an exclusive patent basis, while public power groups fought for patent sharing and giving preference to public bodies in sale of atom-produced power. Backers of public power lost out in attempts to prevent the Atomic Energy Commission from contracting with private utilities for replacement of power obtained from the Tennessee Valley Authority.

Congress' efforts to revise and expand social security laws apparently were to leave several of the pressure groups somewhat dissatified. NAM contended the law should be left unchanged. The Chamber of Congress proposed its own pay-as-you-go plan, little of which was accepted by either House or Senate, and CIO and AFL urged "higher benefits and greater improvements." The American Medical Association opposed extending coverage to doctors and they were cut out of the bill.

Labor claimed a victory when revision of the Taft-Hartley labor law was killed. Its spokesmen had been critical of some of the proposed changes. The powerful veterans lobby won compromise cost-of-living increases in compensation and pensions of disabled veterans.

Most of the pressure groups which took stands endorsed the action of the House in shelving the Administration's health reinsurance plan, and the American Medical Association was said to have had the key role in blocking the proposal.

When Congress extended the reciprocal trade program for one year instead of three, "adequate tariff" forces apparently scored more heavily than did freer trade advocates. A spokesman for the Nation-Wide Committee of Industry, Agriculture and Labor on Import-Export Policy, which fought against the program, told CQ Aug. 10: "The results were 55-45 in our favor." Said an official of the Committee for a National Trade Policy, which sought three-year extension: "About all we can say is that we kept the Act from being killed."

Sears Closing DeSiard Street Store Tonight

When the doors are locked tonight at the DeSiard street Sears retail store it will mark the end of 17 years of business from the same location.

But, when the mammoth merchandising concern reopens its Monroe doors it will be in the heart of this city's newest commercial addition . . . "Sears Town", on Louisville avenue.

C. D. McAdams, Monroe manager for Sears, said Friday that opening dates for the new location will be announced Sunday.

McAdams expressed his thanks to customers for their understanding and to his employes for their fine work during the past couple of weeks while preparations were being made to close the old store and open the new.

"When the new store is opened, I'll have a chance to get acquainted with my family again, and resume some of my work in community affairs," McAdams said. "I'm afraid I've had little time to devote to them for the past few months."

The family he refers to includes Mrs. McAdams, and their two children, Sandra Jane, 20, and Charles 17.

Among the long list of community service positions Mr. McAdams has held during his 10 years as manager of the Monroe Sears store are: charter president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, executive vice - president of the Chamber of Commerce, past president of the Lions Club, past president of the Community Chest. He has been active in Boy Scout and Red Cross work. He is chairman of the official board of the First Christian Church.

Emergency March Against Polio Opening Today

Louisiana's 272 reported cases of polio since January 1 has led to an emergency March of Dimes program to begin today and continue through September 4 during which contributions are to be accepted via the mails at campaign headquarters, 402 Heninger Building, Monroe.

Roy Q. Cole, campaign director, told this story of the state's polio plight:

Twenty - seven polio cases were admitted to four Louisiana treatment centers during the first 15 days of August, it was announced today by Ed Foreman, Louisiana representative of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Final diagnosis on seven additional patients admitted has not been made.

"Total polio cases for Louisiana admitted to the four centers from January 1 through August 15 now stands at 232," Mr. Foreman added 'but this is not the entire picture, as many milder cases have been treated at home or in other hospitals. The Department of Health has reported 272 cases, including those admitted to the treatment centers, through August 7 only."

Two Sanitarians Added By Parish Health Office

First steps in the expansion of Ouachita Parish's health department were evidenced this week with the announcement that two additional sanitarians have joined the unit, and an official rabies-testing mobile service is to be added next week.

Voters last month okayed a three-quarter mill tax hike for use by the health department in its parish-wide program.

Jesse L. Carter, Grayson, and James E. Carson, Rayville, have joined the sanitarian staff directed by O. T. Trapp. The additions brings to five the number of full time inspectors in the department. Veterans Louie B. Lee and J. B. Collinsworth also serve as sanitarians.

Also announced by the department Friday is the arrival of a half-ton "dog truck" to be used in rabies testing operations in Monroe and Ouachita Parish. Until the first of next year the unit will be operated predominatly within the metropolitan area with city pound director Jewel Fuller in charge. Fuller is an employee of the city of Monroe.

City Court

MONROE

The following cases were disposed of in Monroe city court Friday by Judge W. M. Harper:

Leslie R. Broach, 35, Jones was fined $400 for driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquors.

Lillie Mae Davis, 40, Negro, 816 Wood Street, was fined $25 for fighting.

V. H. Mayo, 32, Jones, Richard Lowrey, 40, Negro, and A. R. Holland, 45, Calhoun, were fined $15 for being drunk and disorderly.

WEST MONROE

The following cases were handled in West Monroe city court Friday by Judge Howell Heard:

Hanford George, 17, Route 2, West Monroe, forfeited a $20 cash bond on a speeding charge.

YOUNG 'THRILL' SEEKERS ON WAY TO JAIL — Handcuffed together, Jerome Lieberman, 17; Melvin Mittman, 17, and Robert Trachtenberg, 15, left to right, are led from Brooklyn Felony Court by a policeman after being held without bail on homicide charges growing out of two "thrill" killings. A fourth member of the youthful gang, Jack Koslow, 18, was held without bail on assault charges. The beatings and killings took place in Brooklyn parks with no apparent motive other than "thrills." Glance At Ike's Batting Average

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20—UP—Here is the box score on President Eisenhower's legislative program in the Republican-controlled 83rd Congress:

PASSED

Anti-subversive — Bill to crack down further on Communist party without making membership a crime. Communists failing to register would be subject to fines and jail terms. Other bills would strip convicted Reds of citizenship, grant immunity from prosecution to those testifying about Red activities, and provide the death penalty for peacetime espionage.

Taxes — Bill overhauling the federal tax structure for the first time in 75 years. It provides $1,363,000,000 in tax cuts for corporations and certain individuals and moves the date for filing tax returns up to April 15. Other legislation cut many excise taxes $1 billion a year.

Farm — Administration-backed bill setting price supports on five major crops at 82½ per cent of parity. Efforts to raise dairy price supports from 75 per cent to 80 per cent failed.

Atomic — Compromise providing most of the President's proposed revisions in atomic energy laws. The bill would enlist private industry in peacetime atomic power development and permit the sharing of certain atomic secrets with friendly nations.

Debt — Authorized a $6 billion increase in the $275 billion national debt ceiling for one year.

Seaway — Authorized U.S. participation in the St. Lawrence Seaway project.

Veterans — Increased disability payments to veterans and some dependents by $110 million.

Air Force academy — Authorized a separate academy for the Air Force.

Unemployment compensation — To extend unemployment benefits to four million additional workers.

Hospitals — Established hospitals for chronically ill and rehabilitation and diagnostic centers.

Commodity Credit Corp. — Authorized $1,750,000,000 increase in CCC borrowing authority.

Pay — Congress passed five per cent pay raise bill for one and one-half million postal employes and other federal workers.

DEFEATED

Hawaiian statehood — House passed bill to admit Hawaii. Senate passed bill to admit Hawaii and Alaska. House Rules committee refused to consider Senate bill.

Taft-Hartley — President's revisions shelved by Senate and pigeonholed by House Labor committee.

Health — House killed President's $25 million health reinsurance plan.

18-year-old vote — Killed in Senate.

Wire-tap — Senate shelved President's bill authorizing wire-taps in espionage and sabotage cases.

Defense plants — House shelved and a Senate committee emasculated the President's request for authority to fire defense plant security risks.

COMPROMISE

Trade — Reciprocal trade act extended for one year. President originally asked for three year extension with increased authority to cut tariffs.

Housing — Congress passed bills easing FHA mortgage terms and cracking down on profiteering builders. But President asked for authority to build 140,000 public housing units in four years. Congress approved only 35,000 for one year and placed heavy restrictions on construction.

TROUT REVIVAL

JENA, August 20 (Special) — Special revival services, with Rev. Hoye Harvey of Bossier City, presiding, opened Friday evening at the Trout Church of the Nazarene near Jena. The services beginning each evening at 7 o'clock, will continue through August 29, according to church pastor Rev. M. H. Godwin.

Coroner's Probe Of M'Cann Death Set Next Week

A coroner's investigation into an auto accident that brought death to a Fairbanks chemist August 11 will be conducted here next week.

Dr J. T. French, Ouachita Parish coroner, said Friday that his office will probe the accident, fatal to Roy McCann, when a hospitalized victim of the same crash is able to testify.

McCann was injured on the afternoon of Aug. 11 and died early the following morning. Also injured and placed in the St. Francis sanitarium were Mrs. J. O. Willett and Dick Gunn. McCann received a severe blow on the head which is believed to have caused death.

According to officers investigating the accident, Sgt. J. E. McMullen and Patrolman Ocie D. Howard, Mrs. Willett was traveling east on First street, in Selman field, when the second automobile was traveling south on the Selman Field road. The two automobiles collided at the intersection of the two streets.

Mrs Willett was released from the St. Francis sanitarium earlier this week.

No charges have been filed in the case. Assistant District Attorney Gilbert Brown said Friday there were no legal grounds for filing charges since the intersection was not properly marked and negligence was not in evidence.

'Good Citizen' Award Given By Oak Ridge Lions

OAK RIDGE, August 20 (Special)—The Oak Ridge Lions Club Good Citizen of the Year award, was presented this week to Mrs. Robert Erle Barham, in recognition of her service to the community.

The award was presented Wednesday evening at theclub's annual barbecue held on the school athletic field here. In handing over the scroll, club president Charles G. Rolfe told of Mrs. Barham's work in helping beautify the community, and of the consideration and kindness which she has shown to elderly persons.

Mrs. Barham, who has many civic, church and social affiliations, is the wife of Robert Erle Barham, Sr., president of the Bank of Oak Ridge, and the mother of four children. She also has two grandsons.

High Officials To Attend Meet Of Young Men Clubs

Ouachita Parish officials, and state and city officials from various sections of Louisiana are scheduled to take part in the annual convention of the National Federation of Young Men's Clubs, Louisiana division, opening Sept. 4 in Alexandria.

More than 1,000 delegates are expected to attend the three day session which will be headquartered in the Bentley Hotel.

Among the various officials who have announced plans to take part in the activities are Sen. Russell Long, Rep. Otto Passman, Bishop Charles P. Greco, Monroe Mayor John Coon, Ouachita Parish Sheriff Bailey Grant.

Tax Refunds For Owners Of Slots Mailed By State

BATON ROUGE, Aug. 20 — Slot machine owners put out of business by state police raids today began receiving $63,255 in tax refunds sponsored by a sympathetic tax collector.

The amount represents about half the $122,000 in tax refunds authorized by the 1954 Legislature at request of state collector Rufus Fontenot.

Though illegal in this state, the slot machines were licensed at $100 each. Owners will get back five-twelfths of the tax.

The slot machine tax business went haywire about July last year when state police Supt. Francis Grevemberg unleashed lightning raids.

Fontenot, a few weeks later, complained the state had no business taking the taxes if it intended getting rid of the slots — and he found a strong majority ear in the Legislature. He complained the slot boys had been treated unfairly.

And, he reminded, they were stuck with federal losses too, after paying out $395,000 for federal taxes. The federal government isn't giving any refunds.

In form letters being mailed with the first checks, Fontenot wrote, in part:

"I am pleased that the Legislature was overwhelmingly in favor of the refund bill which I sponsored. I know that the payment of taxes (federal, state and municipal) often places a burden upon our earnings, and I feel every taxpayer is entitled to a full measure of value for the taxes which he pays.

"I am sure you are in accord with . . the action I have taken in this matter."

Fontenot said the other slot owners probably will be paid within 45 days, after they have been able to make valid claims. Some delays are caused by the fact slot owners and location owners haven't made clear who gets what and how much.

Before they get any refunds, Fontenot added, tax records of slot owners are checked to make sure they don't owe the state any taxes.

Largest single check in the first batch was for $2,332, the smallest, $19.79.

The five-twelfths formula was devised to allow a return of the $100 per machine tax money for the five months of 1953 the slots were out of operation.

Since then, Grevemberg claims he has about wiped out the devices in Louisiana.

Former Catcher For Cubs Stabbed; Two Men Jailed

WILLISTON, N.D., Aug. 20—UP—Former major league catcher Dewey Williams was stabbed on a crowded street here late Friday and two shabbily-dressed men suspected of attacking him were arrested in Sydney, Mont.

One of the suspects was identified as a Paul Jackson, about 25, Toledo, Ohio, whom police said Williams identified while he was being taken to a hospital as the man who stabbed him.

Authorities were flying to Sydney to question the suspects.

Doctors said a deep gash was cut across Williams' chest by the pocket-knife stabbing. They said Williams also suffered a broken nose and severe bruises.

His condition was reported serious, but not critical.

Williams, who played for the Chicago Cubs from 1944 to 1947 and for the Cincinnati Reds in 1948, was very "vague" about a reason for the attack, police said. They said they were investigating the possibility a woman was involved.

Witnesses said Williams was walking across the street between two shabbily dressed men. When they reached the curb, witnesses said one of the men knocked Williams to the sidewalk, pulled out a pocket knife, and ripped it into his side.

The man then bent over Williams and took something from his inside coat pocket.

Mrs. Paul Ransom Honors Bride-Elect At Coke Party

Mrs. Paul Ransom's compliment to Miss Beverly Hatchell, popular bride-elect, was a coke party last Wednesday morning. The party was held in garden of the Ransom home which slopes to the Bayou. A wicker basket filled with yellow zinnias and chrysanthemums centered the serving table. The honoree received a corsage of split mums and a gift. She was wearing an orange cotton sheath dress.

Attending the party with Miss Hatchell were, Miss Marth Hatchell, Mrs. Richard Pipes, Mrs. Billy Higdon, Miss Martha Clayton Sparks, Miss Diane Ducote, Miss Carol Layton, Miss Ann Shafto.

Also Miss Rosemary McGinn, Miss Clara Munholland, Mrs. A. C. Ransom, Mrs. Lon Huer, Mrs. Cyril Yancey and Mrs. Billy Millstead.

Recent Bride Party Honoree

Mrs. J. D. Smith, the former Evelyn Earle Hale, whose wedding was celebrated early in August, was honored with a miscellaneous shower on Thursday evening. The party was given by Mrs. F. S. Roberts and Mrs. Prentice King in the Roberts home on the Good Hope Road.

A pink theme was used in the living and dining room, with pink roses, pink altheas and summer greens carrying out the theme. Mrs. Smith was wearing a dress of light blue embroidered organdy, with a corsage of white blossoms.

Included among the guests were, Miss Daisy Dortch, Mrs. Leon Rogers, Mrs. Felix Hernandez, Mrs. Johnnie Hislop, Mrs. Elie Potier, Mrs. Earl Bennett, Mrs. Charles Guraedy, Mrs. Ray Whitlock, Mrs. Royce Whitlock.

Also, Miss Docia Pettigrew, Miss Theda Rose Pettigrew, Mrs. Lillian Coon, Mrs. G. S. Hale, Mrs. Juanita Bryan, Mrs. J. M. Rogers, and Mrs. Jesse Potier.

Miss Anderson Complimented At Lovely Tea

TALLULAH—Among the courtesies extended Miss Joyce Anderson during her engagement days was a lovely tea given by Mrs. J. R. Medlin, Mrs. J. B. O'Shea and Miss Ruth Hale at the Medlin home on Saturday afternoon. Receiving with the hostesses and honoree, who was especially attractive in a gray cotton afternoon dress trimmed with pastel embroidery and a nosegay corsage, were her mother, Mrs. Harry Anderson and Mrs. David Roach of Wisner, mother of the groom to be.

Artistic arrangements of pink dahlias, roses, pink spirea and queen's wreath, placed at vantage points throughout the reception rooms added much to the pleasure of the occasion.

The refreshment table with its pink cloth covered with draped tulle and caught at intervals with nosegays of pink and white flowers, was centered with pink roses and blue salvia in a crystal bowl surrounded with a ruffle of net. On either side was a crystal candelabrum holding pink tapers. The bridal motif was featured in the appointments and delicious refreshments.

Alternating at the punch service were Mrs. James E. Wall and Miss LeEvelyn Grace who were assisted by Mrs. Richard Keller, Miss Sue Leoty and Mrs. L. G. Storey.

Many friends called to extend felicitations to the popular bride-elect.

Lotion Helps Dry Skin

Towards the end of summer, your skin may have become somewhat leathery in texture as well as deeply tanned. A rough-looking skin is most unattractive and may even lead to permanent skin damage.

Even the best tan is insufficient reward if you must sacrifice smooth, petal-soft skin. And those extra daily baths you've been taking mean your skin has had more doses of soap than it requires during any other time.

With soap, salt water, sun and sea breezes taking its toll of your arms, legs, face, neck and shoulders, you'll need to take special care to restore your skin to its healthy, pampered condition

One of the best ways to give your body (not just your face and hands) the special conditioning it needs is to nourish it with a lanolin-rich body lotion. To neutralize the drying effects summer weather has had on your skin, choose one that's made with a soap-free base.

Smooth the lotion on your skin just after your bath and whenever you can. This lotion is not sticky or greasy. And its makers claim it leaves no artificial film on the skin as it penetrates quickly.

Mrs. Oliver E. Moore Feted With Luncheon And Shower

Mrs. Oliver E. Moore, the former Miss Mary Frost, was entertained at a lovely luncheon hosted by Mrs. Harold Black and Mrs. John Kitchingham. Also entertaining for the recent bride was Mrs. J. W. Bubrich whose compliment was a shower in her home.

Chrysanthemums centered the luncheon table at Mrs. Black and Mrs. Kitchingham's luncheon.

The honoree chose a printed linen trousseau model with rhinestone trim. She was presented a corsage of small white chrysanthemums.

Enjoying the occasion with the hostesses and Mrs. Moore were: Mrs. A. S. Frost; Mrs. R. F. Watkins; Mrs. Mabel Spencer; Mrs. Jim Simmons; Mrs. J. W. Bubrich.

For Mrs. Bubrich's shower, Mrs. Moore was wearing a becoming beige linen model.

Guests attending the party were: Mrs. Moore; Mrs. Jim Simmons; Miss Marguerite Kirkpatrick; Mrs. S. G. Simmons; Mrs. John Kitchingham and the hostess.

20th Century Is New Look

The new fall fashions are more genuinely 20th Century than clothes we have had in a long time. "Casual" is the name applied wherever clothes done on straight lines are shown. And straight lines cover a major area of daytime fashions this season. Reviews of new lines by the fashion editors unquestionably show that more easy lines, less upholstering of the silhouette, and softer fabrics in clothes designed for the way women live today, especially in contrast to clothes of the recent past, are bound to raise the word "casual."

But because with all this there is a refinement of cut and detail, and almost more importantly, an unprecedented variety of handsome fabrics, the general effect is hardly casual. This year, it's an enriched 20th Century look, just as the century itself is.

One factor common to all silhouettes that is news-making is the deemphasis of any one particular body contour. That is to say, no extremes of bustline curves, or waistline indentation, or hip-rounding. On the other hand, these 20th Century clothes have no relation to the formless, baggy lines of the 1920s.

With the exception of ball gowns, usually floor length, the all-bare shoulder is replaced by decolletage with straps, often sleeves. This is by way of stating the generally more modest as well as more flattering state of necklines in all dresses. Afternoon and cocktail dresses go in for width rather than depth in the cut-away neckline.

If you want your hair to look prettier on special occasions, be sure it's shampooed about two days in advance of the date. Naturally, you'll want your hair to be sparkling clean, but your coiffure will look more flattering if it's had a chance to soften up after being set.

Grace Yerbury Joins Faculty At Northeast

Dr. Grace Yerbury of New York will join the Northeast State music faculty this fall, it was announced Thursday by Dr Harry M. Lemert, head of the fine arts department.

Her professional career has held three major interests, those of teaching, editing and creative writing.

The newly - appointed instructor was granted the doctorate from Indiana University, where she held a graduate assistantship in voice. While she worked on her dissertation at the Library of Congress, she was research assistant for the human resourace research office of George Washington University. Her dissertation was written on "Styles and Schools of Art Song in America (1720-1850)."

Dr. Yerbury received the bachelor of arts degree from Hunter College of New York City, where she was graduated cum laude, and was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. She completed the bachelor of music degree at Washington Square College of New York University and the master of arts at Columbia University.

She began her professional career as an instructor in the New York City High Schools. Dr. Yerbury maintained a studio in Brooklyn, where she was well known as a church and concert singer. She has subsequently taught in the Braumuller Studios of New Jersey at New York University, and been a member of the editorial staff of G. Shirmer, Inc.

Dr. Yerbury joined the faculty as associate professor of music at the Moravian College for Women in Bethlehem, Penn., where she had charge of all vocal music and all the choirs, including that of the upper school of the Moravian Seminary.

Resulting from her interest in creative writing, Dr. Yerbury has authored poetry which has been published by the New York Sun and various periodicals.

She holds membership in Pi Kappa Lambda, national honorary music society, the American Musicological Society, and Mu Sigma, honorary music society of Washington Square College.

Candidates For Jena's School Band To Report

JENA, Aug. 20. (Special)—Candidates for the Jena High school band and members of the Booster club will report for practice Monday, Aug. 23, Maurice Welch, band director, has announced.

The first practice session will be held at 8:30 a.m., and candidates were advised to come prepared to march, as well as play their instruments.

Approximately 48 members will comprise the marching band and the Boosters will have some 35 girls in the marching squad, Mr. Welch said

The band is in much better shape this year, due to the fact that only 14 members were lost in the 1953 graduating class and for other reasons. With this strong nucleus, Mr. Welch hopes to have the two units whipped into shape for halftime displays by the first home game on Sept. 10.

The director said that "if progress warrants it" the two groups will make the trip to Marksville on Sept. 3 for the first football game of the 1954 season. "This depends greatly on whether the members get down to hard work and are adequately prepared for the trip," he stressed.

"Please, band members, bring your instruments to the first practice session Monday morning," Mr. Welch urged. He said the groups will practice marching during the morning hours "before it gets too hot" and then will adjourn to the high school auditorium for music practice.

Cancer Victim Is Flown To See N. Y. Specialists

NEW YORK, (AP) — A 42-year-old Greenwood, Miss., man was brought to a hospital here late yesterday by plane in the hope that cancer specialists can save his life.

Woodrow French, who was accompanied by his sobbing wife, is suffering from lung cancer. Doctors said he had been given a week to live.

Doctors at the Sloan-Kettering Cancer Institute here said he will be kept under observation to determine what can be done for him.

French is in constant paint. His wife, Agnes, said he had gone almost without sleep for the past five months after doctors called his case hopeless.

His wife wrote to the cancer institute here for help. Director O. H. Pearson said the institute would do surgery for nothing but she would have to pay hospital charges.

An Air Force plane brought French from Greenwood yesterday. He is a World War II veteran who was wounded by shrapnel in the Aleutian Islands. His wife said that besides the Purple Heart he has "so many other medals I can't remember them."

Mrs. French said she has spent all her money on medical bills. She said she would ask help from New York charitable groups.

Dorothy Dix

DEAR MISS DIX: My husband and I have been married 12 years and have five lovely children. Our home life is most happy; Hank is a wonderful husband and father, we understand each other, go out frequently with the children and occasionally alone. My only trouble is with my mother-in-law. Whenever we visit her, she spends the entire time telling me what I do wrong (which is just about everything), and insisting that things should be done as she has always done them—no other way is right.

That I could stand, but in addition she writes my husband frequently, emphasizing certain points of difference. Or she calls and says she wants to see him immediately, making the matter sound like an emergency. But when he gets there, all she wants is to make a new complaint about me. Now, Hank always tells me of these visits, and says they make no difference to him, that he likes the way I do things and wouldn't want me changed in any way. He laughs about the whole matter, and feels I should do the same. On several occasions I've taken my mother-in-law into our home when she's been ill, and given her the best possible care, so her attitude hurts me.

Jennie

ANSWER: You are fortunate that Hank isn't impressed with his mother's fault finding. You must learn to accept the situation in the same way. Older people often think only of the past, taking their sole pleasure in building an ego on yesterday's accomplishments. It happens so often that a woman who has raised a child or two settles back to live exclusively on this one glory. Never will she admit that anyone else ever did half so good a job, and she is especially loath to face the fact that her daughter-in-law is at least equally capable.

IGNORE CRITICISM

While bringing up a family is a wonderful achievement, and one of which any woman can be proud, it's a job that does end. After a son or daughter has reached a certain age, or a definite period in life, it's time for mother to step back and let her offspring continue on their own. However, if she continues to regard her children as youngsters needing her constant direction and their spouses as interlopers who have taken over her work, ignoring the situation is the best attitude for the young people to take. Your husband is doing this, so you learn from him. Your home life isn't being threatened by mother's complaints. Listen respectfully, as Hank does, then forget everything she said. Chronic complainers cannot be changed.

DEAR MISS DIX: Since December I have been going with Andy. During school term we dated twice a week, but since vacation we began to see each other more frequently. He comes over during the day to play records, watch TV, or just talk, and occasionally he visits at night. My mother is usually working when he's here, and claims I shouldn't let him come when she's not at home. My father is dead, and there's nobody else in the family. My boy friend is irked because he thinks Mom doesn't trust us, but she says the neighbors will talk if he keeps coming here.

Evelyn S.

ANSWER: Mom is right. Neighborhood gossip can be very vicious. Your behavior, though perfectly innocent, is the kind of which malicious busybodies can make quite a lot. It would be much better to restrict Andy's calls to the times when mother is home.

DEAR MISS DIX: Some time ago my girl friend and I went skating. She ran out of money, and borrowed a small sum from me. She has not mentioned it since. Would it be wrong for me to remind her of it?

Doris

ANSWER: People very frequently forget to return small sums of money, and need a little mental jogging to bring it to mind. When such things happen, it's best not to let too long a time go by before reminding the borrower, who is usually very glad to have the remission brought to her attention. Make your reminder tactful and your friend will be glad to pay the loan.

Write DOROTHY DIX for free leaflet D-3, "Mothers-in-Law." In all cases, be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and send request to her, care of this newspaper.

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

How To Correct That Unattractive Hairline

It is a comparatively new idea that electrolysis can be used, with wonderful results, to correct an unattractive hairline. For a long time we thought of it only as a means to get rid of unwanted hair on the face or arms or legs.

I do not mean to suggest that we all dash out and have our hairline changed. This would be silly unless we have a real handicap in the way our hair grows about our forehead and at the temples. However, there are many women who are really handicapped in best looks because of this.

The Problems

For instance, let us consider the woman whose hair grows far down on her forehead. She may have an adequate forehead and a well shaped face but the low hairline spoils her appearance. Then some women may have hair which grows much further down on one side of the forehead than on the other, to such an extreme degree, that this gives them a one-sided look.

In older women the hair sometimes grows down at the temples and these stringy hairs, falling down the sides of the face, are not attractive. All of these conditions and any other similar ones can be permanently corrected by electrolysis

Electrolycists do this so gradually that even husbands do not realize what is happening to their wives until they suddenly notice that the wife is much better looking than she was, that she looks prettier than usual. When lifting a too-low hairline on the forehead, the operator works on both sides each time so that there is no lack of symmetry.

Right Arrangement

The way your hair grows about your face and the manner in which you arrange your tresses makes an unbelievable difference in the way you look. Often I have seen friends and members of my family look much prettier at night when their hair was not arranged in the usual coiffure than they do in the daytime. If you notice this about yourself, learn from it. Perhaps your hair is pressed closer to your face or is higher or lower after a night of sleeping. Learn from it!

If you would like to have my leaflet which gives you some simple rules to follow, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for the leaflet "Framing Your Face Attractively," No. 51. Address Josephine Lowman in care of Morning World.

Jena Tent Revival Of Six Churches Opening Friday

JENA, Aug. 20. (Special)—The Jena area tent revival, with six Baptist churches cooperating in the undertaking, will get under way Friday night at the site of the old Goodpine ball, with services beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Prior to the evangelistic portion of the service, there will be brief prayer groups.

The Rev. Jaroy Weber, pastor of the First Baptist Church of West Monroe, will be the visiting evangelist for the series of services which will continue through Sunday night, Aug. 29. The Rev. Jack Day, music and education director of a Tarrant, Ala., church, will have charge of the musical portions of the revival. Ernest Andrews is general chairman of the prayer groups and the Rev. Jerry Poston of the Midway Baptist Church is general revival chairman.

Rev. Weber and Rev. Day will not arrive for the services until Sunday night, Aug 22. In the meantime, Rev. Poston will preach for the service Friday night, Aug. 20 and the Rev. B. G. Dyess, pastor of the Goodpine Baptist church will preach for the Saturday night service.

Cooperating in the revival effort are the Baptist churches of Searcy, Goodpine and Midway and the Temple, East Jena and First Baptist churches of Jena.

Have Cornerstone Exercise Sunday

JONESVILLE, Aug. 20 (Special) —Dedication and cornerstone services will be held at the new Trinity Presbyterian Church here on Sunday, August 29, according to an announcement by Rev. Carl Lazenby, pastor of the church.

Rev. Lazenby said that work on the building is practically complete and that most of the equipment and furnishings for the church have already been installed.

The program for the dedication and cornerstone services, distinguished speakers and guests will be announced next week, he said.

Construction of the church was done by the Central Building Supply Company of Jonesville, which had submitted the low bid of $17,700 for the job.

New Irish treat, GOOD to eat!

Any way you figure it PONTIAC is your best buy RIGHT NOW!

No other car so big is priced so low. Check Pontiac inch for inch and pound for pound with cars costing much more and you'll discover that despite Pontiac's low cost you make no compromise with genuine big-car comfort, stability and relaxing roominess.

Get behind the wheel and put the most powerful Pontiac ever built through its paces and see how its big, high-compression engine packs reserve power for any emergency. Be sure to test its nimble response in traffic —then cruise it along the open road and see how many more easy-going miles you get on so much less gas!

Now recall all the good things you've heard about Pontiac's long, carefree life—its ability to deliver years and years of trouble-free motoring with an absolute minimum of operating and maintenance expense. And because Pontiac's reputation for dependability has never been greater, you are assured of a maximum resale value when it comes time to trade again.

After you've seen how thoroughly good Pontiac is, check how little it costs you to own and drive one. And while you're figuring costs, figure them all three ways —Pontiac's attractive first cost, right down next to the lowest—Pontiac's wonderfully low operating cost— and Pontiac's remarkably high trade-in value. Right now, you know, we're offering better deals than ever before. Come in and get all the facts and you'll quickly see that there never was a better time to buy!

Stocks Climb To New Highs, With Steels In Demand

NEW YORK, Aug. 20 (AP)—Steels, aircrafts and gold mining issues today pulled the stock market to its highest level in the past 25 years. But trading was the slowest in nearly a month.

Railroads, a group that has lagged behind the market this week, came into favor during the final hour. Rubber producers found support, too. But motion picture makers declined and the rest of the market was a jumble of small gains and losses.

The Associated Press aerage of 60 stocks rose 30 cents to $134.90—highest point since Oct. 22, 1929. The railroad component climbed 70 cents to $100.70, a new 1954 peak and the industrials advanced 20 cents at $181.90, only 10 cents below their record high.

Detracting from the market's advance was the sluggish trading. Volume dropped to 2,110,000 shares from 2,320,000 yesterday. It was the dullest session since July 26, when volume matched today's sales.

Also detracting from the glory of a new 25-year high was a narrowing interest in the market. Only 1,172 issues changed hands compared with 1,178 issues yesterday. This was the smallest amount since July 2, when 1,167 issues were traded. However, today there were 96 new 1954 highs established and only three new lows.

Gaining ground were U. S. Steel, General Motors, Goodyear, Montgomery Ward, Boeing, Zenith, American Telephone, Baltimore & Ohio, Santa Fe and Westinghouse. Lower were Chrysler, Sears Roebuck, Douglas Aircraft, Radio Corp., International Telephone, Allied Chemical, New York Central and Loews.

Railroads and utilities pulled the corporate bond market upward. U. S. government obligations were fairly steady.

New York

NEW YORK, Aug. 20 (AP)—Cotton futures closed 40 cents a bale lower to 10 cents higher today. Trading was slow and price movements were narrow, with traders cautious because of rain reported covering some sections of the cotton belt.

Some selling of futures was attributed to this factor. Private advices said there was a good rain north of Memphis, including western Tennessee and Arkansas. On the other hand, there were also reports which drew a picture of serious crop deterioration in Mississippi and Arkansas. Widely scattered showers were expected in Texas extending through Saturday.

Hedge selling helped to depress later deliveries. Nearby October and December were steady on mill covering which found offerings rather light.

The Census Bureau report, placing July cotton consumption at 542,577 running bales, was in line with expectations. The bureau reported domestic consumption for the full 1953-54 season totaled 8,581,202 bales, compared with 9,423,876 bales in the 1952-53 season.

Cotton Letter

Courtesy Merill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Beane

Following are reports received from some of our offices yesterday. Jackson, Miss. Conservation estimates place Miss. crop at least 300,000 bales below the government estimate. Dallas: Crop in east, central and northern Texas looks poor with little relief in sight. Shreveport: Local planters generally report cotton has gone back considerably during the past seven days, with some estimates now ¾ bale yield vs. usual 1½ bale yield. Other private reports have given somewhat the same indication during the past seven to 10 days.

Futures trading was on the quite side and tended easier in the spring months where hedging increased. Demand was light with Liverpool and local buyers. Price fixing in Oct. and Dec. helped narrow differences. McFadden was unable to buy Oct., sell May at 70 pts.

The census bureau reported consumption in four weeks in July totaled 542,577 bales vs. 781,767 in the five week period in June, and 742,064 in five weeks, July, 1953. This is a daily rate of 28,556, 31,909 and 29,683 bales respectively. Stocks consuming establishments total 1,218,051; in public storage, 8,103,150 vs. 3,853,992 last year. Consumption for the season Aug. 2, 1953, to July 31, 1954, was 8,588,202 compared with 9,423,876 in the previous season. Exports for the season thru June totaled 3,533,135.

The unfixed call sales position is still on the rise with 185,600 bales added in the week ending Aug. 13. The total is now 1,390,700 vs. 945,700 a year ago. The bulk of these is based on Dec. 537,400 Bales, 192,500 on Oct. and 349,000 in March. Unfixed call purchases increased 10,000 bales to 110,800, vs. 133,900 last year. A total of 51,000 were based on Oct. and 39,600 on Dec.

Exports yesterday totaled 2,192 bales; so far this season 50,654, against 98,617 last year.

WINNSBORO, Aug. 20 (Special)—The duties of home demonstration agent for Franklin Parish, have been taken over by Mrs. Alice Teddlie, who succeeds Miss Ada Hanchey.

A graduate of Northwestern, Mrs. Teddlie attended Louisiana State University, taught home economics in LaSalle Parish, and for a time was assistant home demonstration agent in Caldwell Parish.

GRAIN

CHICAGO, Aug. 20 (AP)—At the end of a listless session on the Board of Trade today most grain futures prices weren't very much changed from where they had been before the market opened.

Only price swings running to more than a cent were in soybeans, where the September future gained and all the other months declined. Lard was quite firm, however, reflecting strength in cash fats and oils markets.

Wheat losed unchanged to ⅞ lower, corn ⅜ lower to ⅜ higher, oats unchanged to ⅜ lower, rye ¼ lower to ½ higher, soybeans 2¼ lower to 1 cent higher and lard 5 cents lower to 25 cents a hundred pounds higher.

Where Are The New Comedians?

CBS - Radio's very fine police show: "21st Precinct," closes with these mysterious words: "Anyone can catch the brass ring, or the brass ring can catch anyone." A listener wrote and asked producer John Ives just what that bit of mumbo - jumbo meant. Ives turned the letter over to writer - director Stanley Niss, who put the words in in the first place.

"How should I know what it means?" Niss said. "Am I a philosopher?"

Red Skelton, you must remember, is red - headed. So it is understandable for the CBS-TV star to get his dander up on occasion. At the moment, he's peeved at people who sit back and say, "Without vaudeville and burlesque and radio, where are the new comedians coming from?"

It is Skelton's red - headed opinion that comics will keep coming, from anywhere.

"Some will come from TV," he says, "some from what's left of radio, some from night clubs, some from the stage — and some lucky few who will just discover suddenly that they can be funny."

The way Red paints the picture, we have no worries on that score at all. And he may be right.

"The same thing is always said in other fields," he says. "Where are the government leaders of tomorrow coming from? Who will be the great dancers, novelists, soldiers, artists of tomorrow?

"I can see the Broadway agents and producers of the early 1900s shaking their heads and saying, 'Ah, me. When Fred Stone, W. C. Fields, Sam Bernard, Bert Williams, Will Rogers, Willie and Eugene Howard are gone, comedy will be dead.' But Jessel, Joe Cook, Ed Wynn, Leon Errol and the others came along."

And a guy named Skelton came along, too.

"Comedy is universal," Red says. "It'll be with us as long as people laugh at a man slipping on a banana or there's a mother-in-law around. And there'll always be some guy in baggy pants, a crushed fedora or carrying a squeaky violin to poke fun at things."

Red does admit one thing — there's less chance nowadays for a young comedian to practice his art. He had years in circuses, minstrels, carnivals and night-clubs before he made the large time. And he has an idea for helping out the young comics.

"I think they should be helped," he says. "I would like to tour the country, perhaps with a tent show, and give those people a chance to prove themselves. Then, I'd like to sponsor the most promising ones and help them learn the fundamentals of comedy entertaining.

"Being funny is a business. And any business takes a bit of learning."

Retired Educator And Greek Scholar Claimed By Death

NATCHITOCHES, La., Aug. 20 (AP)—Albert George Alexander, 70, retired Louisiana educator and Greek scholar, died at his home here last night.

Widely known as one of the nation's foremost Greek translators, Alexander taught continuously at Northwestern State College here from 1918 until his retirement last year. Since his retirement he has been on the English faculty of Centenary College at Shreveport.

While at NSC, Prof. Alexander for many years headed the department of languages, a position he held at the time of his retirement.

Born in Brusa, Asia Minor, in 1884, Alexander taught school on the island of Cyprus before coming to the United States.

He was educated at International College, Smyrna, Turkey, Doane College and Peabody College in the United States. He did graduate work at the University of Southern California.

One of his chief works was translations of the Greek philosopher, Makrakis.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at the first Baptist Church here. Interment will be in the American Cemetery.

Survivors include the widow, two daughters, Mrs. E. H. Gilson, Shreveport, and Mrs. Harry Thomas, Enid, Okla.; two sons, James H. Alexander of Baton Rouge, and A. G. Alexander Jr., Shreveport; and two sisters who live in Nicosia, Cypress.

Negro Attorney Threatens Suit Against City

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., —UP— A Birmingham Negro attorney said today he would enter a suit in federal court if the city authorities refused Negroes the right to play on municipal golf courses.

Oscar W. Adams, one of a group of five Negroes who applied for admission yesterday to a public golf course and were turned down, said he would write a letter to the park and recreation board and "if they refuse us, we'll take the case to the U S. District court here. . ."

The group of Negroes asked to purchase tickets for a foursome on the Highland golf course.

The course, pro. Ed Stacks, who was behind the ticket window at the time, refused to sell them tickets.

According to Adams one of the group asked Stacks, "Do you mean you can't sell tickets to Colored?"

Adams said Stack replied, "Yes, you'll have to take it up with the park and recreation board."

Adams said there was no commotion and the entire incident took place in less than three minutes.

It was the first such incident reported here although Negroes have won the right to play on city-owned golf courses in Atlanta, New Orleans, Nashville, Tenn., and Houston, Tex.

The lawyer said if the case went to court it would be filed against the city of Birmingham, the city commission, the park and recreation board and Stacks.

Cost Of Living Rises During July

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20 —UP— The government reported Friday the cost of living rose slightly in July for the third straight month, automatically giving one million auto, aircraft and farm equipment workers a cent an hour pay increase.

The increase — one-tenth of one per cent—brought the Bureau of Labor Statistics consumer price index to the near-record level of 115.2 per cent of average 1947-49 prices. The index was four-tenths of one per cent higher than a year ago and 13.2 per cent higher than when the Korean war started in June, 1950.

Acting Bureau Commissioner Ayrness Joy Wickens said the chief factor in the increase was the summer drouth which helped boost food prices seven-tenths of one per cent. But the increase in food was offset partly by drops in new car price and clothing.

While declining to forecast the August index to be issued later this month, Mrs. Wickens noted that food prices normally decline somewhat in August and September.

The hike in food prices occurred chiefly in central and eastern cities where fresh fruits and vegetables were somewhat scarce because of the drouth. Prices dropped slightly in West Coast cities. There were some seasonal increases for milk and eggs.

The pay increase for the workers whose wages are tied to the price index will become effective Sept. 1. They will regain one cent of the two cents an hour lost under the index since last October.

The drop in clothing prices was attributed mainly to summer sales of sport shirts, men's summer suits, cotton dresses and nylon hose.

In food, prices of green beans rose 22.5 per cent; oranges 10 per cent; tomatoes 7.5 per cent; potatoes 8 per cent, eggs 7 per cent, and fresh milk more than 2 per cent.

Clean-Up Day In Harrisonburg Set

HARRISONBURG, Aug. 20 (Special) — Mayor T. H. Cassel and the board of aldermen here have proclaimed Wednesday, August 25 as "Clean Up Day" with all citizens asked to participate.

In informing residents here of the plan, Cassel said, "August 25 has been designed as "Clean Up Day" for the town. We ask the cooperation of all citizens and property owners to cut weeds and grass from vacant lots, drives and fence rows."

The mayor further stressed that all tin cans, scrap iron and other unsightly objects be removed from the front and sides of homes.

He said the clean up will improve the looks of the town and lessen the danger of fire. Six homes in Catahoula parish have been destroyed by fire in recent weeks.

Twin Cities Down El Dorado League Leaders, 7-3

Halley Pitching, Flores' Two-Run Homerun Feature

EL DORADO, Ark., August 20 (Special)—The Twin Cities Sports got back in the win column here tonight, with a 7-3 victory over the league-leading El Dorado Oilers.

Jumping off to a two-run lead, the Sports were never headed, with Bill Halley's seven-hit hurling and Paul Flores' two-run homer in the eighth featuring.

The Sports scored first is the top of the third, when a walk, a Frank Marinkovich single, a sacrifice by Bob Norden, and a costly error at third in the Oiler infield accounted four two runs.

El Dorado cut the two-run margin in half in the fourth, when Frank Wallenga, the league's leading hitter, blasted a Bill Halley fastball over the right centerfield fence. There was nobody on base, and the score was 2-1.

The Twin Cities added another pair in the sixth, to make it 4-1. Paul Flores led off with a free pass and was sacrificed to second by Sam Chetta. Chuck Forbes collected this third consecutive safety, Flores holding second. Both advanced on a wild pitch, and another wild pitch scored Flores and moved Forbes to third. Herman Herzog singled Forbes home with run number two of the inning.

After Oiler starter Don Radebaugh had walked the first two Sports he faced in the eighth, he was relieved by Elmer Toth. After getting one out, Halley singled Sam Chetta, on second from his walk, home with the fifth Twin Cities marker.

El Dorado got two back in their half of the same frame, on singles by pinchhitter Buck Rogers, Wallenga and Pel Austin; with a walk to Gene Bilo sandwiched between.

The Sports came right back in the ninth with two more, to make it 7-3. C. J. Fontana singled, and Flores lofted his 15th four-master of the season over the leftfield barrier to account for the final tallies.

Shows Up For Work

OLEAN, N. Y. Aug. 19 (AP)—Ernie Stautner, 245-pound veteran tackle who had been given permission to report late to take care of personal affairs, finally showed up Thursday at the training camp of the National Football League's Pittsburgh Steelers.

LOUISIANA BOYS MEET MISS AMERICA—Evelyn Margaret Ay, Miss America of 1954, welcomed the Louisiana delegation to the International Jaycee Junior Golf Tournament at Albuquerque, N. M. Australians Set Pace For Canada Cup; U. S. Is 6th

MONTREAL, Aug. 20 (AP)—The Australian pair of Peter Thomson and Kelvin Nagle shaved seven strokes off par today and grabbed a four-stroke lead after the first day's play in the second annual Canada Cup Golf Tournament.

Thomson, recent winner of the British Open, registered 34-35—69 while Nagle, virtually unknown outside his own country, had 35-33 for his trek over the 6,589 yards of the par 36-36—72 Laval-Sur-Le-Lac course.

The Australians' efforts gave them a four-stroke edge over Canada and Jimmy Demaret, who posted 144, good for a tie for sixth.

Twenty five two-man teams, representing 26 countries, are competing in this second annual international meet. Four rounds will be played and the combined stroke scores of the teams after Sunday's two rounds will determine the 1954 successors to the Argentine champions of the inaugural.

A year ago, when Roberto De Vicenzo and Antonio Cerda took the Laurels, only seven nation competed. Today the same pair had 142 which left them in third place.

Snead, who had trouble all day with his approaches, shot a 38-36 and was two over par after the first four holes. On the tenth, however, he uncorked one of the day's best shots. His drive landed 40 feet from a family of six trees that blocked his path to the green but the West Virginian bent his second around the barrier with the ball coming to rest, hole high on the green.

Demaret, registered 36-34, was steady all the way with his putting clipping two strokes off par on the home nine.

Stan Leonard of Vancouver, had a 66 for the day's hottest round over the tree-framed fairways. His card was studded with an eagle and five birdies.

Nagle's 68 was equalled by Harry Bradshaw, the huge Irishman. Harry Weetman, England's power hitter, missed a 68 when his 30-inch sidehill putt on the 18th rolled to the side.

Bobby Locke, the South African putting machine, had 33-38—71.

Giants Blank Bucs, 4-0 With Liddle's 3-Hitter

NEW YORK, Aug. 20 (AP) — Don Liddle, rarely used as a starter, held Pittsburgh to three hits tonight as the New York Giants whipped the Pirates 4-0 with all of the runs scoring on a grand slam homer by Don Mueller.

Bob Snyder Is Added To Villanova's Staff

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 20 (AP) — Bob Snyder, T formation expert and former head coach of the Los Angeles Rams, was appointed backfield coach at Villanova University today.

In addition to Snyder and Ken Kavanaugh, whose appointment as end coach was announced earlier, head Coach Frank Reagan will retain Eddie Michaels, line coach, and Joe Rogers as freshman mentor.

Pete Cooper Nabs 1-Stroke Edge In Fort Wayne Open

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Aug 20 (AP) — Veteran money player Pete Cooper, Tampa, Fla., buoyed by the first hole-in-one of his career yesterday, smoothly whittled out a 5-under-par 67 today and took the second-round lead of the Fort Wayne Open Golf Tourney.

But the rest of the field was hot behind him. A pair of Canadians, Jerry Kesselring, Toronto, and Rudy Horvath, Windsor, Ont., were a stroke back at 136.

U. S. Grid Stars At Helm As Pro Canadians Open

EDMONTON, Aug. 20 — Canada's Western Interprovincial football Union season will open tomorrow with a schedule of Eddie Le Baron against Indian Jack Jacobs and Claude Arnold against Frank Tripucka.

That's simpler and more to the point than saying the Calgary Stampeders will play the Winnipeg Blue Bombers and the Edmonton Eskimos will meet the Saskatchewan Roughriders. These four pass—tossing quarterbacks from the United States are the key men of four squads well-equipped with "imports" from the other side of the border.

The fifth, and newest, club, the British Columbia Lions wait until next week for their home opener against Winnipeg's 1953 champions.

Le Baron, formerly with the Washington Redskins, is Calgary's replacement for the faeing Frankie Albert. He will have the support of a glittering array of imports, including Lowell Wagner for the San Francisco 49'ers, Neil Ferris from the Los Angeles Rams, Eddie Macon from the College of the Pacific and Jerry Coody from Baylor.

Jacobs, now 35, will be at the Winnipeg helm for the fifth year under a new coach, Allie Sherman, former New York Giants backfield coach. He is expected to get frequent relief from third-year import Joe Zaleski and Vince Drake from Fordham.

Arnold, former Oklahoman billed as Canada's top quarterback, will lead a battered Edmonton squad against the Rough Riders and their reclaimed Tripucka. The former Notre Dame star was cut off last year in favor of Glenn Dobbs.

Arnold's understudy, Bernie Faloney from Maryland, is out with undetermined injuries. Halfback Jackie Parker suffered a rib separation during the exhibition season as did Chinese fullback Normie Kwong and Glen Lippman has gone back to Florida to get his Air Force discharge.

Champ Sees Movies; Hopes To Kayo Ezzy

GROSSINGER, N. Y., Aug. 20 —Heavyweight Champion Rocky Marciano took another look today at the movies of his first fight with Ezzard Charles and said "this time I hope to stop him"

Marciano and Charles meet at Yankee Stadium, Sept. 15.

Rocky said "I missed some opportunities to finish him off but that I hope I won't miss this time."

The champion's only activity was a morning jog on the road and watching the movies. He will box tomorrow and Sunday.

Cards Tie Double Play Mark, But Lose To Reds

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 20 - — The St. Louis Cardinals tonight tied a National League record by executing six double plays, but lost to lefty Joe Nuxhall and the Cincinnati Redlegs, 3-2, when the potential tying run was thrown out at the plate in the ninth inning.

The victory for Cincinnati coupled with Philadelphia's loss to Brooklyn gave the Redlegs undisputed possession of fourth place in the National League.

The six double plays by the Cards equalled a record matched six times. The New York Yankees hold the American and major league mark of seven.

Trinity Baptist and Memorial Methodist gained the finals of the Church "B" Softball League's championship playoffs last night with second straight semi-final wins. Trinity stopped College Place Baptist 10-7 and Memorial sidetracked Gordon Avenue Methodist 13-2.

Rival pitchers were also the leading batters in the Memorial-Grodon Avenue scrap. Spain, the winning pitcher, and Brown, the loser, each got two-for-three. Deland contributed a homer for Memorial Methodist. Walters caught Spain and Hesketh was Brown's backstop.

Womack's heavy hitting that included a homer, a double, and a single in four trips to bat, carried Trinity past College Place for the winning battery of Salter and Thompson. Petty and Bushnell led the College Place attack with two hits each. The losing battery was Peterson and Petty.

Minden Defeats Bernice, 6 To 5, In Extra Frames

BERNICE, La., Aug. 20 (Special) —Shortstop Jim Hughes socked a twelfth inning home run to enable the Minden Red Birds to defeat Bernice, 6 to 5, here tonight in the third extra inning battle of their Big Eight League semi-final series.

The victory handed the Birds a 2-1 edge over Bernice, league leader at the close of the regular schedule, in the series which continues Saturday night with the fourth game at Minden.

Dan Brown also homered for Minden earlier in tonight's contest.

"Red" Parker was the slugging star for Bernice with two home runs and a single in five times at bat.

The Big Eight rivals have now played 35 innings in three playoff games. The first went ten innings and the second 13 frames.

MILLERS HOLD BUCKS

GREENVILLE, Miss., Aug. 20 (AP) —Roy Jayne held the Greenville Bucks to five hits and issued blanks to snap a nine-game winning streak of the Bucks and Meridian won the series opener 5-0 tonight in a game halted in the top half of the eighth by rain.

Meridian scored three runs in the fourth on four hits and a base on balls off Bob Wiltse. Clyde Heron doubled to right and scored on Gene Pompella's single. Wendell Forbes forced Pompella at second. Moose Shetler singled Forbes to third and he scored on Tommy Davis' sacrifice fly. Ronnie Pittman walked and Catcher Sprayberry singled in Shetler.

Heron walked in the fifth, raced to third on Pompella's single and scored on Forbes' sacrifice fly. Jayne helped his own cause in the sixth. Davis singled, was sacrificed by Pittman, went to third on Sprayberry's infield out and scored on Jayne's single.

With Jayne at bat and two out in the eighth a downpour of rain halted the game.

Indians Trounce Baltimore To Boost League Lead

Cleveland Coasts To 7-2 Win After Six Early Tallies

BALTIMORE, Aug. 20 (AP)— The American League leading Cleveland Indians took their batting practice in the first two innings tonight, scoring six times, including Al Rosen's 21st homer, and then held off the Baltimore Orioles for a 7-2 victory.

Neither team got any pre-game practice because of rain almost up until the start. Cleveland batted around in the first inning for four runs and continued to pour it on with two more in the second, permitting Manager Al Lopez to relax early and enjoy his 46th birthday.

The hitting spree also eased Art Houtteman to his 13th victory, fourth straight over Baltimore, although he was lifted after six innings.

Ward, Campbell Reach Canadian Amateur Finals

LONDON, Ont., Aug. 20 (AP) — Veterans Harvie Ward, San Francisco, and Bill Campbell, Huntington, W. Va., slammed into the finals of the 50th Canadian Amateur golf championship today, turning the golden jubilee event into a black nightmare for two part-time golfers.

The relaxed 29-year-old Ward, steady and straight, trounced jittery Lyle Crawford, Vancouver, B. C., 9 and 7, in their scheduled 36-hole semi-final round at the London Hunt and Country Club.

Playing his usual deliberate methodical game, the 6-foot-4 Campbell joined Ward in the championship round by whipping Harry Haverstick, 36-year-old auto agency owner from Lancaster, Pa.

The All - American final — the third in the long and storied history of the Canadian Amateur—will be a 36-hole test starting at 7:30 A.M. (CST).

Both Ward and Campbell, old timers in this art of international play, here overpowering on this hot, sunny day.

Olson Keeps Middle Title

By HAL WOOD

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 20—UP—Poker-faced Carl (Bobo) Olson stalked a back-pedalling Rocky Castellani through 15 rounds of a torrid fight Friday night to win a unanimous decision and retain his world middleweight crown.

In a vicious battle that saw each fighter on the floor once, Olson chased the No. 1 challenger from Cleveland from start to finish. At the end Castellani was bleeding profusely from a cut sustained in the sixth round.

For two men rated as more or less powderpuff punchers, the pair put on a caveman battle. Castellani caught Olson off balance in the 11th round and the champion went to the canvas but jumped up immediately. Referee Ray Flores called it a two-count knockdown.

Olson came roaring back is the 12th and he decked Castellani for a nine count with a solid right smash to the jaw. The right cross sent Rocky spinning and his legs buckled as he went to the floor. He got up and back pedalled easily to withstand the ever-moving forward attack of the champion.

Referee Flores voted 89 to 76; judge Fred Apostoli voted 85-80 and judge Jack Downey 87½-77½ for the champion. The United Press score sheet had nine rounds for Olson, two for Castellani and four even.

This was Olson's 16th consecutive win and it was one of the few times since he became a top name fighter that he led from the opening round.

True to his own prediction, he came out fast and it appeared that he was going for a knockout in the first two rounds. He battered Castellani with solid rights and lefts to the head in the second round although the challenger weathered the storm nicely.

Castellani, a clever defensive battler, picked off a lot of Olson's blows and it is probable that the champion missed more wild swings than at any time in his career.

The result was that several times they wound up in amateurish positions and under the ropes.

Castellani's best rounds were the fifth, when he scored with a solid right cross to Olson's head and then followed up with several good shots, and the 11th, when Olson went down.

Up to that time Olson had abandoned his usual weaving tactics and was making bull-like rushes. From then on he went back to his usual crouch and weave and he got better results.

Olson was booed by the hometown crowd several times early in the fight for hitting while the fighters were breaking from a clinch. He also was warned for hitting low in the 13th.

Castellani didnt stop his back pedalling very often, but when he did it was a toe-to-toe slugging match that brought an estimated crowd of 12,000 to its feet.

Quarterback Club At Vidalia Slates Meet For Monday

VIDALIA, La., Aug. 20 (Special) —An organizational meeting of the Vidalia Quarterback Club has been called for Monday, at 7:30 o'clock at the Vidalia High School at which time plans for the coming season, including a membership drive, will be discussed. All members and prospective members are urged to attend.

The Quarterback Club did an excellent job last year but there remains some work ahead, according to Coach Walter L. Stampley, who directed the Vidalia eleven last year and is back this season.

A meeting of the officers of the Quarterback Club was held last Monday night at which time it was decided to call the larger meeting for next Monday.

The officers of the Vidalia Quarterbacks are Omer Cross, president; Teddy Nichols, vice-president; C. J. Sullivan, secretary and Fred Falkenheiner, treasurer.

The Vidalia High School Vikings, in their third year of football, will play a nine-game schedule this fall—five of the games scheduled to be played on the home field. Coach Stampley has been drilling his charges daily in preparation for the opening game of the season with Golbert High School September 10. He has all of his starting lineup of last year with three exceptions and he is anticipating an improvement over last season's record.

Californian Holds Lead In Jaycees' Junior Golf Meet

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M., Aug. 20 (AP)—Allen Geiberger, Santa Barbara, Calif., maintained a three-stroke lead today at the end of 54 holes in the ninth annual International Jaycee Junior Golf Tournament here.

Shooting under pressure, Geiberger took a five-over-par 77—his worst round of the tournament—for a third round total of 222.

Phil Rodgers, San Diego, Calif., also took a 77 and stayed three strokes back at 225.

Hugh Patterson, Toronto, Can., turned in a 75 today for a third-round 226 and third place, while Jack Rule, Waterloo, Ia., third at the midway point, shot a 79 and wound up in seventh place at 228.

Following Patterson at 227 were Jack Dupit, Greggton, Tex., Michael Kosar, Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, and Bob Pratt, Las Vegas, Nev.

The leaders:

Allen Gieberger, Santa Barbara, Calif., 73-73-77—222.

Charles Works Four Rounds With 3 Mates

MONTICELLO, N. Y., Aug. 20 —Ezzard Charles boxed four rounds today including a spirited one round session with Coley Wallace, a big league fighter.

Charles stopped the big New York heavyweight in ten rounds in San Francisco last December. For a while today, it looked like Coley was trying to get even.

After working with Wallace, Charles boxed two rounds with Al Smith and one with Gene (Tiger) Jones.

This was Charles' first hard day of work since he opened camp here six days ago to begin the final phase of his training for the return title bout with Heavyweight Champion Rocky Marciano at Yankee Stadium, Sept. 15.

3 American Gridders Dropped By Montreal

MONTREAL, Aug. 20 (AP)— The Montreal Alouettes today dropped three more Americans from their roster, reducing to 12 the number of imports on hand.

Released by the Canadian Big Four team, were halfback Jimmy Joe Robinson of the University of Pittsburgh, tackle Tom Hughes of Virginia Tech and guard Tim Moriarity of the University of Detroit.

Quarterback Al Dekdebrun and tackle Marv Meirowitz were released Wednesday. Two more imports will be released soon since 12 Americans are battling for the 10 positions allowed.

Pick Ollie Childs As New Coach At Waterproof High

WATERPROOF, La., Aug. 20 (Special)—Waterproof High School officials yesterday announced the appointment of Ollie Childs as football coach of the Tensas Tigers, succeeding Ronald Dry who resigned recently to accept a position as assistant coach at Block High in Jonesville.

Coach Childs, who graduated from Louisiana College in 1946 and obtained his master's degree at the University of Arkansas in 1949, formerly coached in this area when he was tutoring gridders at Wisner High School in 1947 and 1948. At Louisiana College he was a fullback and guard, making all-conference in the latter position. During 1948-49 he was recreation director for the city of Alexandria, and since 1950 had been coaching at Rangely, Colo.

The Waterproof scheduled:

Sept. 3—Jamboree at Ferriday.
Sept. 17—Mangham, there.
Sept. 24—Cathedral of Natchez, here.
Oct. 1—Joe Davidson of St. Joseph, here.
Oct. 8—Sicily Island, there.
Oct. 15—Lake Providence, there.
Oct. 22—Marksville, here.
Oct. 29—Block of Jonesville, here.
Nov. 5—Open.
Nov. 12—Hanson Memorial of Franklin, here.
Nov. 19—Open.
Nov. 25—Ferriday, there.

Jena's Football Boosters Greet Coaching Staff

JENA, La., Aug. 20 (Special)—Making plans for another full year of action support of the Jena High School football team, the Jena Athletic Association met Tuesday night to elect Barney Basham president, succeeding Frank Doughty, and "meet the new coaches."

In addition to Basham, the "side-coaches."

In addition to Basham, the "sideline quarterbacks" also named Edd Bass secretary and W. D. Butler treasurer of the organization. It was announced that an active membership drive will be launched shortly.

For many of the "quarterbacks" it was their first chance to meet the new head coach, Zac Henderson Coach Henderson is starting his first year at the helm of the Giants, having replaced Bill Maxwell who resigned to accept a similar position at Bossier High School. Prior to coming to Jena, Coach Henderson was backfield coach at Haynesville High School.

Another new coach on the Jena scene, but as "oldtimer" as far as Jena is concerned, is Ray Thompson, assistant coach, who formerly played halfback for Jena High, then turned in four years with the Tulane Green Wave as end. It is Thompson's first season in the coaching field.

Racer Holstead, assistant last year under Maxwell, and head basketball coach, is the third man of the Jena coaching setup.

Coach Henderson, after being introduced stated that he thought he had come from one of the best football towns in Louisiana (referring to Haynesville), but that after having been in Jena for little less than a month he felt that Jena was as good if not better than any place he had ever been. He praised the co-operation he had received from the citizens of Jena and while he stressed that it was far too early to predict the outcome of the 1954 team he felt that it would be a good one because the boys on the squad had plenty of hustle and really wanted to play the game.

DICK NOLON GETS TRIAL

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 20 —UP— The New York Giants will give Dick Nolon, former Maryland halfback, a trial in their defensive backfield when they play the Chicago Cardinals at Spokane, Wash., Saturday night.

Substitute Scores All Runs As Cubs Check Braves, 3-1

CHICAGO, Aug. 20 (AP)—Big Bob Rush pitched shutout ball after the first inning and substitute center fielder Bob Talbot did all Chicago's scoring as the Cubs squelched the Milwaukee Braves, 3-1, today.

Talbot, who slammed three hits, two singles and a double, was in the game because regular Frankie Baumholtz has a pulled leg muscle.

Nixon Again Tames Yanks As Red Sox Triumph, 4-3

BOSTON, Aug. 20 (AP)— Boston righthander Willard Nixon tonight became the first pitcher to whip the New York Yankees four times this season and batted in the winning run in a 4-3 Red Sox victory that snapped the Yankees' winning streak at 10 games. The loss dropped the secon-place New Yorkers 3½ games behind Cleveland's league-leading Indians who defeated Baltimore 7-2.

Nixon, now 4-0 against the Yanks, injured his neck and shoulder while trying to stretch his eighth -inning, two -out double into a triple. That 400-foot smash off rookie Bob Grim scored Grady Hatton from second base with the winning run.

Nixon landed heavily on his head and shoulder as he made a frantic lunge at third base. He overslid the bag and was tagged out by third baseman Bill Skowron on a relay from Mickey Mantle to Gerry Coleman to Skowron.

Slipping Defense Should Have Been

North was very disappointed when South ran out of the double of three clubs. Actually, West would have lost only one heart, one diamond, and two clubs.

South didn't think he was particularly safe at spades, but he was correct about feeling dissatisfaction with the double of three clubs. As things turned out, South had the pleasure of making his contract when the defense slipped.

Opening lead—♥ A.

West opened the ace of hearts and then switched to his singleton diamond. Declarer took the ace and promptly cashed the king of diamonds, hoping that West had led from a doubleton.

West was able to ruff the second round of diamonds and should have cashed the ace of clubs at once to make sure of defeating the contract. Instead, west foolishly led his remaining heart.

South won with the king of hearts and led a low heart right back. West could still defeat the contract by ruffling high and cashing the ace of clubs, but West couldn't see the danger.

When West actually discarded a club, declarer ruffed the low heart in dummy and led another high diamond in order to discard his singleton club. Now the contract could not be defeated. The defenders could get three trump tricks and the ace of hearts, but there they would stop.

Four Days Of Funeral Honors Set For Gasperi

SELLA VAL SUGANA, Italy (AP) —Four days of funeral honor began early today for former Premier Alcide de Gasperi with a memorial mass here in the Dolomites he loved and climbed.

As the body of the grim, gaunt fighter for European unity against communism lay in the mountain chalet where he died early yesterday, members of his family, Italy's top officials and townfolk knelt in the tiny Roman Catholic church of Sella de Val Sugana.

The 73-year-old statesman's body will be placed in a wood and crystal coffin later today and taken down the mountain trail to Borgo Val Sugana for private family services attended only by his widow and two of his daughters. The third daughter is a nun in a convent near Rome.

After the service the body will be taken through the mountains of De Gasperi's native south Tyrol to Trent, near the tiny village where he was born. The body will lie in state in the Trent cathedral until Saturday, when it will be placed aboard a special train for the trip to Rome, where a state funeral will be held Monday.

Huckaby And Hales Reported Improving

Commissioner of Streets and Parks Wayne Huckaby and Fire Chief H. L. Hales, both of whom have recently suffered severe illnesses, appeared to be on the road to recovery Friday.

Mayor John E. Coon said he visited the commissioner in St. Francis Hospital Friday morning and found him "feeling fine." Special nurses with him since he underwent surgery last week are scheduled to be dismissed shortly.

Fire Chief Hales, who suffered a serious heart attack about two weeks ago, visited at the city hall Friday morning, telling friends there he was considerably improved but still under a physician's care.

4 Thrill-Killing Hoods Sick At Sight Of Victim

NEW YORK (AP) — Brooklyn's four thrill-killing teen-agers, once boastful about their deeds of violence, turned sick and shaken from the sight of one of their hapless victims.

The "fun" was over for Jack Koslow, 18-year-old leader of the brutal foursome. He wept when confronted yesterday with the battered, water-soaked body of a Negro victim and told detectives, "I feel sick."

It was Koslow who two days earlier had allegedly given police details of this slaying and other savage attacks of the night before. At that time he told them:

"Last night was a supreme adventure for me."

One by one the four youths were brought onto a Brooklyn waterfront pier to identify the body of Willard Menter, 34, who ran afoul of his killers in a Brooklyn park Monday night.

Police knew nothing of the slaying until after the four youths were arrested early Tuesday on an assault complaint and told of beating a man, burning his feet with cigarettes and throwing him into the East River. Police began dragging the river and yesterday recovered the body. An autopsy showed he drowned.

Kowlow, lean and mustached, was the first to be shown the bruised and bloated figure stretched out on the pier. He turned pale and whimpered:

"Yes, that's the man. Take me away from here before I faint."

Brought to the scene next was husky Melvin Mittman, 17. His muscles bulged under tight dungarees and polo shirt as he stood looking down on Menter's corpse. In a strained and tearful voice he said he recognized the man.

"Yes, yes, that's the man. We threw him into the river."

Police reported only two days ago that Mittman had told them he liked to pummel the gang's victims "to see how hard I could hit."

Jerome Lieberman, 17, answered police questions grimly, but there were tears in his eyes.

The last, 15-year-old Robert Trachtenberg, remarked:

"That man wore brown pants. These are blue."

He glanced up at the stern eyes of policemen around him and quickly added, "I might be wrong, though. It was so dark."

"I think that's the guy," he then said.

Menter's body was identified by his brother. The man, married and father of two, had worked in a Brooklyn factory and was last seen by his family Monday night.

Police say they have learned of nine attacks by the gang, including the death of Menter and another man, Rheinhold Ulrichson, a 43-year-old steeplejack.

The four youths are being held without bail.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Methodist Charges Roman Catholics Forge 'Iron Curtain'

Gulf Between Christianity And Communism Too Wide For Any Bridge, East German Cleric Says

EVANSTON, Ill., Aug. 20—UP—A churchman from the Soviet zone of Germany said Friday that the "fanatical religion" of communism and the Christian faith can never be reconciled.

The Rev. Dr. Guenter Jacob said communism "reduces God to a product of a primitive mankind's anxieties and Jesus Christ at best to a revolutionary who failed."

Jacob delivered the boldest attack yet made by the assembly of the World Council of Churches by any of the delegates from behind the Iron Curtain. Council spokesmen said they understood the Russian government at first refused to let him come here and then changed its mind.

In another outspoken address, Methodist Bishop Sante Uberto Barbieri of Argentina charged that the Roman Catholic Church is fomenting "unrest and prejudice" in Latin America in an attempt to preserve a "300-year-old religious iron curtain."

Jacob said that from 1945 to 1953 the life of churches in the Soviet zone of Germany was "deeply scarred by harsh measures," but conditions have improved since then under a "new line" proclaimed by the state.

Jacob, general superintendent of a district of the Evangelical Union Church lying in the Soviet zone, said the church now is beset by propaganda and the difficulty of reaching children indoctrinated with "materialistic ideology" in state schools.

But while the church is better off than it was, he said, communism remains diametrically opposed to christianity and the "gulf cannot be bridged."

Barbieri, of Buenos Aires, told the assembly that direct or indirect Catholic influence is "at the bottom of every curtailment of religious liberties" in Latin America.

Commenting on recent violence in Colombia, Barbieri said a report to the United Nations in April by that country's evangelical confederation showed 53 Protestants died, 116 primary schools were forcibly closed and 43 churches were destroyed by fire and dynamite.

He said the report stated that the violence was "largely instigated by elements of the Roman Catholic clergy."

Barbieri, who is presiding bishop of the Methodist Church in Argentina, Uruguay and Bolivia, said "similar efforts" are being carried out in Paraguay.

He listed Peru, Ecuador and Venezuela as other countries where religious restrictions are in effect or are on the increase, but said restrictions are declining in Argentina and Mexico.

The bishop said he regretted making the charge before a group which seeks unity among all Christian faiths.

"But there is no hope of a common Christian front in the world until the day when the Roman Catholic Church retraces her steps and extends to us the right hand of fellowship as brothers on equal terms," he said.

Lake Providence American Legion Inducts Officers

LAKE PROVIDENCE, Aug. 20. (Special)—The Powell - Martin-Barrett Post 37 of the Americas Legion and the Powell-Martin Barrett Unit 37 of the American Legion Auxiliary held a joint meeting for the installation of officers last night. The program was followed by a chicken dinner at the American Legion home.

Commander Roy Abernathy gave the yearly report for the legion post and Mrs. Mary Vickery, president of the auxiliary, reported on their activities during the year.

Installing officer for the post was State Commander of the Legion Charles Robert Smith. Mrs. Georgia Payne Pinkston installed officers for the auxiliary and was assisted by Mrs. Louisa O. Steen.

Officers of the post installed are Tom Bass, vice - commander; Henry Winters, commander, King Trieschman, adjutant; M. E. Watts, chaplain; Bill Scott, sergeant - at - arms; John Markey, finance officer.

New officers for the unit are: Mrs. Minnie E. Bass, president; Mrs. Bennett Dalfiume, first vice-president; Mrs. George Townsend, second vice president; Mrs. Sue Abernathy, secretary - treasurer; Mrs. Eleanor Nelson, historian; Mrs. Mae Salemi, sergeant - at-arms; Miss Rose Marie Maggio, assistant sergeant-at-arms.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the installation program and supper were: Commander R. C. Smith of Springhill; Commander Robert Bush of Columbia, fifth district commander; George Knight of Columbia, fifth district adjutant; Gilbert Hower of Winnsboro, post commander; Fred Williamson of Magnolia; A. P. Parham of Baton Rouge; Leman Fulmer of Baton Rouge; Sgt. and Mrs. H. Harrison of Oak Grove.

Two Convicts Taken To State Prison

Two prisoners were transferred to the Louisiana State Penitentiary at Angola by Deputy William O. (Bill) Causey, of the Ouachita Parish Sheriff's department.

They were P. L. Rochell, sentenced to one year for theft of a watch valued at $178.50, and John Madison, 18, sentenced to 18 months for burglary of a Blue Plate truck.

If your freshly washed and ironed clothes have a slight discoloration, you'd better check your ironing board cover. Keep it in top-notch condition by washing it several times a month in hot soapsuds.

Sen. Johnson Raps Record Of GOP Congress

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Democratic leader today replied to President Eisenhower's praise for the Republican-controlled Congress with notice his party will fight the November election battle on the main issues of the administration's tax, farm, labor, power and business policies.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Senate Democratic leader, said in an interview he believes that his party in Congress has "drawn the lines clearly on these issues and the people will decide in November who is right."

Eisenhower, in a Springfield, Ill., speech yesterday, cited tax reductions, flexible farm price supports, expansion of social security coverage and a claimed 10-billion-dollar cut in federal spending as domestic accomplishments of which his administration is proud.

Without direct reference to Eisenhower's remarks, Johnson said he thinks the Democrats have succeeded in dramatizing for the taxi driver, the farmer, the clerk and the businessman "the sharp difference in philosophy between the two parties.'

"The Republicans are for tax reduction for the stockholders and the Democrats are for tax reduction for the individual," he said.

"The Republicans are for farm price supports at 82 per cent of parity and the Democrats are for 90 per cent support.

"The Republicans are for keeping the Taft-Hartley law as it is and the Democrats are for amending it.

"The Republicans are for private power development and monopoly in atomic energy and the Democrats are against it." Sen Ferguson of Michigan chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, insisted the over-all record of Congress — not any particular issue — will determine the vote outcome.

"This Congress has passed a program that was laid out carefully by the President and the congressional leaders last December before the session began," he said. "The program carries out the basic principles the party was elected to put into effect and I think a majority of the people favor that program."

Justice Department Will Contest Award To Choctaws Of Mississippi

By GORDON BROWN

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Justice Department attorney said today the government will contest a recent ruling by the Indian Claims Commission that the Mississippi band of Choctaw Indians is entitled to $417,000 under a century-old treaty.

The commission returned its ruling earlier this week in a case which has been pending several years. The Choctaws claimed the government owed them many millions.

Curtis C. Shears, Justice Department attorney who represented the government in the hearings, said he plans to ask the commission for a re-hearing of the case.

"The government does not owe this money," Shears told a reporter. "We believe the commission erred in its findings and that it will grant us a re-hearing. We proved our case."

Shears said that if the commission denies his motion for a re-hearing the government will appeal the case to the Court of Claims. The court would review the evidence and the law involved but would take no further evidence. Should the government lose in the court of claims, Shears said, it then will appeal to the Supreme Court.

The Mississippi Choctaws are those who elected to remain in Mississippi when, under a treaty signed in 1830, the government moved the bulk of the tribe into Oklahoma.

The Mississippi group contends the treaty entitled the Indians to land in Mississippi which they never got.

The government, on the other hand, contends the Indian claims were met under a later settlement with the Choctaw tribe.

Robert C. Handwerk, of Washington, an attorney for the Indian group, said he would not appeal the commission decision although he thought the Choctaws had proved they were entitled to nearly $900,000. He said he will oppose the government motion for a re-hearing.
